

FOREWORD BY BILL DRAYTON	xi
PROLOGUE	xv
INTRODUCTION: RIPPLING SOLUTIONS INTO SYSTEM CHANGE	1

PART ONE

Restructuring Institutional Norms 18

Reflections by Esther Dyson

- | | | |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | Power to the People—Germany | 22 |
| | How Elektrizitätswerke Schönau works with communities to buy back, manage, and control electric grids so it can replace nuclear power with renewable sources of energy. | |
| 2 | The Teaching of Teaching—United States | 32 |
| | Changing the dynamics of how and what teachers teach; appreciating the vision of the Center for Inspired Teaching. | |
| 3 | From Servitude to Solution—India | 42 |
| | How the Rickshaw Bank is reinventing the lives and livelihoods of rickshaw drivers. | |

- 4 Lifting the Veil for Women Who Don't Exist—Nepal 54
Removing age-old restrictions on women who lose their rights, property, and freedom after the death of their husband; understanding how Women's Human Rights is changing the face of Asia.

PART TWO

Changing Market Dynamics 64 Reflections by Peter M. Senge

- 5 Using MicroConsignment to Open a Door to Economic Inclusion—Guatemala 68
Exploring the way Community Enterprise Solutions offers "a basket of solutions" to rural villagers by lowering the cost of economic entry for suppliers.
- 6 Dialing Maize 411—Kenya 84
Using technology to connect small-scale farmers with real-time competitive prices; how the Kenya Agricultural Commodities Exchange improves the lives of small farmers.
- 7 Stimulating Fiscal Vibrancy by Creating a New Economy—Brazil 94
Stimulating local economies by creating a new currency and a system of community banks for low-income citizens; the story of Bancos Palmas.

PART THREE

Using Market Forces to Create Social Value 104 Reflections by William Jefferson Clinton

- 8 From Garbage to Gold—Peru 108
How Ciudad Saludable creates microenterprises around garbage collection and increases the economic viability and positive health outcomes of communities in which they operate.

9	A Better Model of Capitalism—United States	120
	Ensuring a fair price for farmers by transforming global trade practices; the influence of FairTrade USA on American consumers and its impact on families around the world.
10	Shit Business Is Serious Business—Nigeria	134
	Building a culture of sanitation and hygiene in crowded urban areas in Africa and Asia; why DMT Mobile Toilets is literally changing the landscape and much more.
11	Putting the Public Back in Public Housing—France	146
	Applying a quintuple bottom line to eco-housing, Chenelet energizes low-income neighborhoods while creating community with dignity and grace.
 PART FOUR
	Advancing Full Citizenship	156
	Reflections by Geeta Rao Gupta
12	Financial Freedom for Children—Global	160
	Equipping a generation of youth to take charge of their financial survival, Aflatoun balances the scales in favor of their future.
13	Overcoming the Barriers Between Us and Them—Germany	170
	Redefining disability as ability and otherness as likeness; the story of Dialogue Social Enterprise, creator of the “Dialogue in the Dark” experience.
14	Autistic Abilities—Denmark	180
	How Specialisterne (Specialist People Foundation) is transforming autism from a handicap to a competitive advantage.
15	Crazy Becomes Normal—Argentina	190
	Reconnecting the mentally ill with society and vice versa, La Colifata uses a weekly radio show broadcast by the patients as the link.

PART FIVE

Cultivating Empathy 200

Reflections by Arianna Huffington

- 16 From Babies to Behavioral Shift—Canada 204
The effectiveness of Roots of Empathy in ending aggressive behavior among children.
- 17 Cultivating Champions of Interfaith
Action—United States 214
Building widespread public support for interfaith youth work on University campuses; embracing the mission of the Interfaith Youth Core.
- 18 Beautiful Resistance—Palestine 224
How Alrowwad creates a space to express normality in conflict zones.
- 19 Conclusion: Turning What Is and What If into
What Can Be 236
- EPILOGUE: HOW TO THINK ABOUT TOMORROW 248
- NOTES 251
- ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 256
- ABOUT THE AUTHOR 258
- INDEX 261