

List of Tables	ix
List of Figures	xi

Foreword by His Royal Highness Prince El Hassan bin Talal	xiii
--	------

About the Contributors

Part I: Making Sense of Globalisation in the Arab World

1	Introduction: Hamed El-Said and Jane Harrigan	3
2	Economic and Political Dimensions of Globalisation in the Arab World Jane Harrigan and Helen Tilley	15
3	Toward a Framework for Arab Economic Reform: Learning from the Evidence Jamil Ali Hammoud	49
4	Two Decades of Liberalisation Reforms in Morocco: Successes and Failures Aouatif El Fakir	71
5	Contesting Structural Adjustment: The Donor Community, Rentier Elite and Economic Liberalisation in Jordan Warwick Knowles	89

Part II: Democrats Without Democracy: Case Studies

6	Security through Democracy? The Legacy of the Bush Administration and the Future Role of Democracy Promotion in American Foreign Policy Jana Dorband	109
---	--	-----

7	The Meaning of Democracy: A Lebanese Adolescent Perspective Patricia Velde Pederson	125
8	Economic Reform and Authoritarianism in Egypt: Politics, Power and Patronage Thomas Demmelhuber	145
9	Breaking the Wave – the War in Iraq, US–Egyptian Relations and the Bush Administration's 'Democratic Tsunami' Lars Berger	165
10	Will Globalisation Allow Democratisation? Abdulaziz Sachedina	185

Part III: Radicalisation and Extremism in the Arab World

11	Radicalisation and Extremism that Lead to Violent Extremism in the Arab World Hamed El-Said and Richard Barrett	199
12	In Search of a De-Radicalisation Strategy Hamed El-Said and Jane Harrigan	237
	Index	272