

Contents

1	Introduction: Death and Dying in Comparative Philosophical Perspective	1
	Timothy D Knepper
Part I Death and Religion
2	Death in Ancient Chinese Thought: What Confucians and Daoists Can Teach Us About Living and Dying Well	11
	Mark Berkson
3	Secular Death	39
	Amy Hollywood
4	Negotiating Advance Directives in a Navajo Context	51
	Michelene Pesantubbee
5	The Cult of Santa Muerte: Migration, Marginalization, and Medicalization	63
	Eduardo González Velázquez, Eduardo García-Villada, and Timothy D Knepper
Part II Medicalization and Religion
6	Christians Encounter Death: The Tradition's Ambivalent Legacies	79
	Lucy Bregman
7	A Jain Ethic for the End of Life	99
	Christopher Key Chapple
8	The Ritualization of Death and Dying: The Journey from the Living Living to the Living Dead in African Religions	115
	Herbert Moyo

9	Death in Tibetan Buddhism	125
	Alyson Prude

Part III Bioethics and Religion

10	Jewish Perspectives on End-of-Life Decisions	145
	Elliot N. Dorff
11	Buddhism and Brain Death: Classical Teachings and Contemporary Perspectives	169
	Damien Keown
12	Ethical Engagement with the Medicalization of Death in the Catholic Tradition	187
	Gerard Magill
13	Islamic Perspectives on Clinical Intervention Near the End of Life: We Can but Must We?	201
	Aasim I. Padela and Omar Qureshi

Part IV Comparative Conclusions

14	Comparative Conclusions	229
	Allen Zagoren, Lucy Bregman, Mary Gottschalk, and Timothy D Knepper	