

Contents

List of figure and tables	vii
Notes on contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xi
 PART I
Introduction	1
 1 Contextualising research on the Eastern European music industries	3
PATRYK GALUSZKA
 2 Creating a market economy in Eastern Europe: Economic reform as the central theme in the transition	22
TOMASZ LEGIEDZ
 PART II
Russia	39
 3 Piracy as an institutionalised social practice in Soviet and post-Soviet Russia	41
MARCO BIASIOLI
 4 ‘We have no music industry!’ Exploring the context of post-Soviet music making through the lens of contemporary Swedo-Russian collaborations	62
INGRID M TOLSTAD

PART III

Central Europe

- 5 Socialist riches to capitalist rags: The disintegration of the GDR music industry during German reunification 81
SVEN KUBE
- 6 Collective management of copyright during communism and transition – A case study of the Society of Authors ZAiKS 94
ANNA PLUSZYŃSKA
- 7 The National Festival of Polish Song in Opole: The transformation of legal, economic, and political circumstances over fifty years of the Polish music industry 107
KATARZYNA KORZENIEWSKA
- 8 Pohoda: the importance of Slovakia's greatest festival 127
PETER BARRER
- 9 Managing the Eastern European position in the digital era: music industry showcase events and popular music export in Hungary 138
EMÍLIA BARNA

PART IV

Southeast Europe

- 10 The Romanian music scene: The social economy of pop music in the post-socialist period 155
ELENA TRIFAN
- 11 Come visit (our past) again: How municipalities encourage retro rock culture on the Bulgarian music scene 172
GERGANA RAYZHEKOVA
- 12 The Yugoslav and post-Yugoslav alternative rock canon presented in the music press 186
JULIJANA PAPAZOVA