

List of tables	v
List of figures	vii
List of acronyms	viii
Notes on contributors	x
Acknowledgements	xiv

One	Beyond the welfare state as we knew it? Nathalie Morel, Bruno Palier and Joakim Palme	I
-----	---	---

Part I Towards a new social policy paradigm

Two	Two or three waves of welfare state transformation? Anton Hemerijck	33
Three	Redesigning citizenship regimes after neoliberalism: moving towards social investment Jane Jenson	61

Part II Mapping the development of social investment policies

Four	Towards social investment? Patterns of public policy in the OECD world Rita Nikolai	91
Five	Social investment or recommodification? Assessing the employment policies of the EU member states Caroline de la Porte and Kerstin Jacobsson	117

Part III Assessing the social investment policies

Six	Promoting social investment through work–family policies: which nations do it and why? Kimberly J. Morgan	153
Seven	Active labour market policy and social investment: a changing relationship Giuliano Bonoli	181
Eight	Do social investment policies produce more and better jobs? Maira Nelson and John D. Stephens	205
Nine	Social investment in the globalising learning economy: a European perspective Bengt-Åke Lundvall and Edward Lorenz	235

Part IV Meeting the challenges ahead?

Ten	Social investment in the ageing populations of Europe Thomas Lindh	261
Eleven	Aftershock: the post-crisis social investment welfare state in Europe Patrick Diamond and Roger Liddle	285
Twelve	Climate policy and the social investment approach: towards a European model for sustainable development Lena Sommestad	309
Thirteen	From the Lisbon Strategy to EUROPE 2020 Bengt-Åke Lundvall and Edward Lorenz	333
Fourteen	Social investment: a paradigm in search of a new economic model and political mobilisation Nathalie Morel, Bruno Palier and Joakim Palme	353
Index		377