

Table of Contents

Foreword	vii
Introduction: The Trident Debate Renewed Andrew Futter	xi
I: British Nuclear Strategy: History and Culture
1 Seventy Years of British Nuclear Debates: A Short Overview Daniel Salisbury	3
2 The United Kingdom's Nuclear Deterrent: A System of Systems David Jarvis	19
3 UK Trident Renewal: Antecedents and Decision Making Kristan Stoddart	31
4 The Silence of British Nuclear Culture Jonathan Hogg	47
II: Trident Renewal: The Wider Context
5 The Heterogeneity of UK Military Views on Nuclear Weapons Henrietta Wilson	61
6 The Trident Renewal Decision, the United Kingdom, and the NPT Lukasz Kulesa and Shatabhisha Shetty	75
7 Reflections on the Legality and Legitimacy of Trident Renewal William Walker	93
8 Surviving a Sea Change: Trident and the Special Relationship Heather Williams	107

9	Dangerous and Inhumane: UK Nuclear Policy and Humanitarian Nuclear Ban Strategies Rebecca Johnson	121
10	"Bairns Not Bombs": The Scottish Peace Movement and the UK Nuclear State Catherine Eschle	139
III: Next Steps and Future Challenges
11	Sustaining Trident: Nuclear Absolutism and Nuclear Symbolism Nick Ritchie	155
12	Next Steps in the United Kingdom's Nuclear Warhead Programme: What Future for the Atomic Weapons Establishment? Peter Burt	175
13	The Future of Political Opposition to Trident Toby Fenwick	191
14	Future UK Nuclear Deterrence Requirements Andrew Futter	207
	Index	221
	About the Contributors	225