
Contents

1	Introduction	1
2	EU Decision-Making: An Overview of the System	5
2.1	Legal Bases: What Can the EU Do?	5
2.2	The Institutional System	8
2.3	The Main Instruments and Modes of EU Action	9
2.3.1	Rules	11
2.3.2	Financing	13
2.3.3	Policy Coordination	14
2.3.4	Cooperation in Foreign and Security Policy	15
2.4	Differential Arrangements on a Multi-dimensional Continent	17
2.4.1	The Euro Area and 'Multi-speed' Europe	18
2.4.2	The European Economic Area and 'Concentric Circles'	20
2.4.3	Freedom, Security and Justice, and 'Variable Geometry'	20
2.4.4	Individual Measures	22
	Reference	24
3	Why Do We Have the EU Institutions?	25
3.1	Why Do We Have the EU Institutions That We Have?: A Historical Answer	25
3.2	Why Do We Have the Institutions That We Have?: An Analytical Perspective	31
	References	36
4	Legislative Procedures	37
4.1	The Ordinary Legislative Procedure in a Nutshell	37
4.2	The Commission Proposal	38
4.3	The Parliament	46
4.4	The Council	51
4.5	Interinstitutional Negotiations	54
	References	59
5	Delegated and Implementing Acts	61
5.1	Basic Elements	61
5.2	Issues	64

5.2.1	Delegated Versus Implementing Acts	64
5.2.2	Consultation	65
5.3	A Case: Food Information to Consumers	66
5.3.1	Gluten	67
5.3.2	Engineered Nanomaterials	68
5.3.3	The Origins of Meats (and the Confusion of Species) . . .	70
5.4	Interlude: The Kitchen of EU Decision-Making	71
6	Making the Internal Market Work: The EU and Other Actors . . .	75
6.1	Harmonisation and EU Standardisation Bodies	75
6.2	Risky Products and EU Agencies	80
6.3	Social Policy, Social Partners and Social Dialogue	83
6.4	International Organisations	88
6.4.1	Transport Safety	89
6.4.2	Foodstuffs	90
	References	92
7	Economic Governance	93
7.1	The Institutional Architecture of Differential Participation	93
7.2	A Mix of Methods	99
7.2.1	Controlling Imbalances: Please, Please Comply With the Rules!	99
7.2.2	Working Together for Jobs and Growth: Please Do Better	104
7.3	The European Semester	106
7.4	Issues and Perspectives	106
	References	109
8	Foreign and Security Policy	111
8.1	A Bit of Background	111
8.2	CFSP in Practice	114
8.3	Cases: The EU in the Central African Republic and Mali	117
8.4	Issues and Reflections	122
	References	124
9	Conclusions	125
	References	132
	Annex: Liaison Between Vice-Presidents and Commissioners for Initiatives Requiring a Decision of the Commission	133
	Index	135