

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	xii
Table of Cases	xiii
1. Introduction	1
1 Enforcement	1
2 Rights	6
3 Evolution	9
2. EC Environmental Law in the National Legal Order	14
1 Introduction	14
2 Direct effect	15
2.1 Rights	15
2.2 Conditions	25
2.3 Horizontal effect	44
3 Consistent interpretation	55
3.1 Introduction	55
3.2 Substance	55
3.3 Added value	57
4 Duties on national courts and authorities	68
5 Conclusion	71
3. Judicial Review Before National Courts	75
1 Introduction	75
2 Jurisprudential harmonization of procedural law	76
2.1 Introduction	76
2.2 The principles	77
2.3 Relevance for EC environmental law	84
2.4 Rule of reason and proportionality	88
3 The Aarhus Convention and implementing EC legislation	90
3.1 The Aarhus Convention	90
3.2 Community implementation	91
3.3 Jurisprudential harmonization v the Aarhus Convention and implementing legislation	91

4	Procedural requirements	93
4.1	Introduction	93
4.2	Passive role of judges	93
4.3	Time limits	96
4.4	Res judicata	98
4.5	Legal costs	100
5	Acts susceptible to review	104
5.1	Introduction	104
5.2	Case law	105
5.3	The Aarhus Convention and implementing legislation	107
6	Standing	108
6.1	Introduction	108
6.2	Case law	109
6.3	The Aarhus Convention and implementing legislation	114
6.4	Standing in matters concerning information and public participation	117
6.5	Standing in proceedings against private parties	118
7	Grounds and intensity of review	120
7.1	Introduction	120
7.2	Case law	120
7.3	The Aarhus Convention and implementing legislation	123
8	Legal consequences and basic remedies	124
8.1	Introduction	124
8.2	Legal consequences of procedural infringements	125
8.3	Remedies against illegal acts	130
8.4	Remedies against illegal failures to act	134
9	Interim relief	137
9.1	Introduction	137
9.2	Case law	138
10	Reparation on the basis of direct effect	141
10.1	Introduction	141
10.2	Directive 2004/35/EC and other liability legislation	142
10.3	Specific performance	143
10.4	Nullify unlawful consequences	145
10.5	Nullify unlawful consequences v state liability	146
10.6	Reparation by private parties	147
11	State liability	149
11.1	Introduction	149
11.2	Rights and damage	150

11.3	Sufficiently serious breach	157
11.4	Causation	160
11.5	Acts and omissions by the judiciary	163
12	Sanctions	167
13	Conclusion	169
4.	Preliminary References	171
1	Introduction	171
2	General conditions	172
2.1	Competence	172
2.2	Obligations	173
2.3	Admissibility	175
2.4	Ex officio	176
3	Interpretation	177
3.1	Introduction	177
3.2	Acts susceptible to interpretation	178
3.3	Consequences	180
4	Judicial review	183
4.1	Introduction	183
4.2	Time limits	184
4.3	Reviewable acts	185
4.4	Grounds of review	189
4.5	Consequences	202
4.6	Interim relief	204
5	Sanctions	211
6	Conclusion	212
5.	Judicial Review Before Community Courts	215
1	Introduction	215
2	Direct and individual concern	216
2.1	Introduction	216
2.2	Decision addressed to the plaintiff	216
2.3	Community acts of direct and individual concern	217
3	Internal review	226
3.1	Introduction	226
3.2	Personal scope	227
3.3	Time limits	229
3.4	Substantive scope	230
3.5	Grounds and nature of review	237

4	Judicial review	238
4.1	Introduction	238
4.2	Standing	239
4.3	Time limits	240
4.4	Grounds of review	241
4.5	Consequences	243
5	Interim relief	244
6	Community liability	246
6.1	Grant of rights	246
6.2	Causation	247
6.3	Sufficiently serious breach	248
7	Conclusion	249
6.	Enforcement by the Commission	251
1	Introduction	251
2	Article 226 EC	252
2.1	Introduction	252
2.2	Monitoring	253
2.3	Prejudicial stage	256
2.4	Judicial stage	256
3	General and persistent (GAP) infringements	262
3.1	Introduction	262
3.2	Substantive conditions	263
3.3	Procedural conditions	266
3.4	Added value	268
3.5	Further development	272
4	Article 228 EC	274
4.1	Introduction	274
4.2	Legal framework and ECJ's discretion	275
4.3	Penalty payments	277
4.4	Lump sums	286
5	Structural deficits	290
5.1	Duration	291
5.2	Independence	293
6	Rights of private parties	295
6.1	Introduction	295
6.2	Access to information	296
6.3	Right to participation	299

6.4 Access to judicial review	299
6.5 Community liability	301
7 Horizontal enforcement	302
8 The complementary role of private enforcement	304
7. Conclusion	309
1 Introductory remarks	309
2 Private enforcement against national authorities and private parties	309
2.1 Rights and remedies	309
2.2 Effectiveness	313
3 Private enforcement against Community institutions and bodies	316
4 The Aarhus Convention	320
5 Recommendations	322
6 Final conclusion	323
Bibliography	326
Index	337