

Contents

	LISTENING & SPEAKING	READING
1 LEARNING Page 008 Academic Focus: Presenting factual information	Presentations (1) Understanding main ideas in a presentation Noting down key information Identifying questions asking for information Asking questions for further information Noting-taking (1): Noting key information Questions (1): Asking for further information	Textbooks (1) Understanding a text Identifying factual information Identifying statistics and time references Data (1): Identifying factual information Factual information: Present and past simple and progressive
2 SYMBOLS Page 022 Academic Focus: Defining and explaining	Lectures (1) Listening for the main and supporting ideas in a lecture Understanding spoken definitions Defining and explaining a simple concept in a seminar discussion Defining (1): Giving spoken definitions Defining (2): Asking for definitions and explanations	Textbooks (2) Identifying definitions and explanations in a text Identifying the language of simple definitions and explanations Understanding meaning from context Defining (3): Identifying definitions and explanations in a text
3 ETHICS Page 036 Academic Focus: Describing and explaining	Presentations (2) Understanding the main idea and supporting details in a presentation Noting down examples in a presentation Describing a concept Asking for repetition and clarification Note-taking (2): Noting examples Repeating and clarifying information	Textbooks (3) Understanding a descriptive text Recognizing the use of description in a text Understanding noun phrases in descriptions Noun phrases (1): Using adjectives and nouns to modify nouns
4 FACTS Page 050 Academic Focus: Comparing and contrasting	Lectures (2) Understanding comparison and contrast in a lecture Giving a short presentation referring to visual information Comparing data in a short presentation Comparison and contrast (1): Adjectives Data (2): Referring to visuals	Textbooks (4) Understanding the main idea and specific details in a text Identifying the language of comparison and contrast Understanding comparison and contrast in a text Comparison and contrast (2): Using different word classes
5 ENVIRONMENT Page 064 Academic Focus: Expressing stance	Lectures (3) Identifying stance in a lecture Expressing stance with supporting evidence Asking for and responding to stance in a discussion Stance (1): Referring to someone else's views Stance (2): Giving an opinion, agreeing, and disagreeing	Journals Identifying the main arguments in a text Recognizing stance in a text Stance (3): Author's stance; other people's stance

WRITING

(1) Simple sentences

Identifying parts of a simple sentence
Writing simple sentences
Sentences (1): SVO; SVC
Sentences (2): SVA

(2) Compound sentences

Writing compound sentences using and, but, and or Sentences (3): Writing compound sentences using coordinators
Sentences (4): Using compound sentences

(1) Simple definitions

Writing simple definitions
Writing definitions with relative clauses
Defining (4): Relative clauses

(2) Extended definitions

Writing definitions with prepositional phrases
Writing extended definitions
Defining (5): Prepositional phrases
Defining (6): Extended definitions

(1) Sentences using articles

Identifying the use of articles
Using articles in sentences and in a short paragraph
Noun phrases (2): Articles

(2) Sentences using noun phrases

Identifying the use of determiners to give cohesion
Adding descriptive detail to nouns
Writing sentences using noun phrases
Noun phrases (3): Determiners
Noun phrases (4): Using determiners, adjectives, and nouns

(1) Writing connected sentences

Identifying the language of comparison and contrast
Writing connected sentences comparing and contrasting ideas
Comparison and contrast (3): Showing similarities and differences

(2) Describing visual data

Describing visual data using comparison and contrast
Data (3): Approximation

(1) Sentences expressing stance

Writing sentences expressing stance
Hedging (1)

(2) Writing a stance paragraph

Writing a paragraph expressing stance
Using hedging language to express stance
Hedging (2): appear and seem; modal verbs

VOCABULARY

Using academic vocabulary
Vocabulary-building: Identifying verbs and nouns

Academic verbs
Collocations (1): Verbs and nouns

Style: Academic vs informal vocabulary
Collocations (2): Prepositions

Vocabulary related to trends
Prepositions in statistics
Vocabulary-building: Antonyms

Vocabulary related to research
Vocabulary-building: Noun suffixes
Nouns and verbs with the same form

ACADEMIC LANGUAGE CHECK

Present and past simple and progressive forms
Writing simple sentences
Writing compound sentences

Definitions and explanations
Definitions using defining words and phrases

Noun phrases (1): Adjectives and nouns
Noun phrases (2): Articles
Noun phrases (3): Cohesive determiners

Describing similarity and difference
Comparative adjectives

Expressing stance
Agreeing and disagreeing
Hedging

LISTENING & SPEAKING

READING

6

SCIENCE Page 078Academic Focus:
PerspectiveLectures (4)

Recognizing perspectives in a lecture
Using abbreviations to take notes
Identifying perspectives in a presentation
Presenting an idea from a range of perspectives
Perspective (1): Expressing spoken perspective
Note-taking (3): Abbreviations and symbols

Textbooks (5)

Identifying perspectives in a text
Using perspectives to understand a text
Perspective (2): Expressing perspective in a text

7

LANGUAGE Page 092Academic Focus:
Summarizing and paraphrasingLectures (5)

Understanding signposting language
Note-taking (4): Organizing notes into summaries
Using signposting language
Giving a summary of a talk
Signposting language

Textbooks (6)

Identifying key features of a summary
Understanding references in a text
Summarizing information in a text
Cohesion: Referring back in texts

8

FORMATION Page 106Academic Focus:
Describing sequence and processPresentations (3)

Noting down key events in a past narrative
Identifying the sequence of events in a narrative
Describing a past narrative
Past tenses

Textbooks (7)

Understanding a description of a process
Identifying key language in a process
Describing a process (1): Sequencing in a process

9

HEALTH Page 120Academic Focus:
Cause and effectLectures (6)

Understanding cause and effect
Recognizing and noting down key cause and effect relations
Using indirect questions to respond to lecture content
Giving a brief explanation of causes and effects
Cause and effect (1): Relationships
Questions (2): Indirect questions

Textbooks (8)

Understanding cause and effect relationships in a text
Using verbs to describe cause and effect
Cause and effect (2): Verbs

10

LOCATION Page 134Academic Focus:
ArgumentLectures (7)

Identifying main argument and supporting evidence
Identifying structure of a well-reasoned argument
Presenting arguments for and against
Linking words (1): Addition
Linking words (2): Conceding

Textbooks (9)

Understanding a short argument text
Identifying arguments
Evaluating the strength of arguments
Linking words (3): Contrast

Glossary of grammatical and academic terms page 007

Language reference page 150

Writing: Sample answers page 159

WRITING

VOCABULARY

ACADEMIC LANGUAGE CHECK

(1) Topic sentences
Identifying topic sentences in a paragraph
Writing topic sentences

(2) Topic and concluding sentences
Identifying concluding sentences
Writing a paragraph with topic and concluding sentences

Vocabulary-building: Adjective and adverb formation
Vocabulary-building: Multi-part verbs

Abbreviations in note-taking
Expressing perspective
Topic and concluding sentences

(1) Paraphrasing
Paraphrasing sentences
Paraphrasing a paragraph
Paraphrasing

(2) Citation
Recognizing citation
Citation

Collocations (3): More verb and noun collocations
Using synonyms in paraphrasing

Signposting language
Referring back in a text
Paraphrasing
Citation

(1) Sentences using passives
Using the passive voice to describe a process
Describing steps in a process using the passive voice
Describing a process (2): The passive voice

(2) Describing a process
Writing a paragraph describing a process
Describing a process (3): The passive voice, tenses, sequencing words

Prepositions of place
Using verbs to describe a process
Word formation: Describing dimensions

Past narrative tenses
The passive voice
The passive voice and narrative sequencing words

(1) Cause and effect connections
Using noun expressions to express cause and effect
Expressing cause and effect using verbs and nouns
Cause and effect (3): Noun expressions

(2) Cause and effect paragraphs
Writing a paragraph expressing cause and effect

Collocations (4): Adjective + noun
Recognizing the meaning of homonyms

Cause and effect language

(1) Main body paragraphs
Identifying arguments and supporting ideas
Writing main body paragraphs

(2) Openings and conclusions
Planning opening and concluding paragraphs
Writing an argument essay
Essay writing (1): Stating aim and purpose
Essay writing (2): Concluding paragraphs

Formal and informal vocabulary
Using common prefixes

Linking words (1): Addition
Linking words (2): Contrast

Additional material from units page 162

Answer key page 166

Video and audio transcripts page 169
List of sources for texts page 175