

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| List of Abbreviations | xiii |
| List of Contributors | xvii |
| List of Treaties | xix |
| | |
| Introduction | 1 |
| Neil Boister, Sabine Gless and Florian Jefßerger | |
| 1. Norms, Procedures and Practices of Transnational Criminal Law in 18th and Early 19th-Century Europe | 14 |
| Karl Härtter | |
| 2. Criminological Reformism and Transnational Criminal Law (1870s–1930s) | 27 |
| Michele Pifferi | |
| 3. The Growth of the Multilateral Suppression Conventions in the First Half of the 20th Century | 39 |
| Neil Boister | |
| 4. Transnational Epistemic Communities: From the League of Nations to the United Nations War Crimes Commission | 57 |
| Kerstin von Lingen | |
| 5. Gerhard Mueller's Role in Developing the Concept of Transnational Crime for the United Nations | 70 |
| Mangai Natarajan | |
| 6. The Emergence of Criminal Law Norms in International Organizations | 84 |
| Frank Meyer | |
| 7. Transnational Criminal Courts: A Partially Realized Idea | 101 |
| Sara Wharton and Robert J Currie | |
| 8. A History of Maritime Piracy: A Transnational Crime in Need of Transnational Substantive Criminal Law | 115 |
| Masha Fedorova and Piet Hein van Kempen | |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 9. British Anti-Slave-Trade Treaties with African and Arab Leaders as Precursors of Modern Suppression Conventions Roger S Clark | 128 |
| 10. Social Anarchy, 'Common Danger' or Political 'Terrorism'? Origins of Transnational Legal Suppression of Terrorism in the Unification of Criminal Laws, 1927–35 Ben Saul | 138 |
| 11. The History of the Global Anti-Human Trafficking Agenda, with a Focus on Prostitution and Sexual Exploitation Heli Askola | 151 |
| 12. A Short History of Smuggling of Migrants in International Law Andreas Schloenhardt | 162 |
| 13. Organized Crime: The Road to the Palermo Convention Serena Forlati | 177 |
| 14. The Origins of International Anti-Corruption Law: The Failed Negotiation of an International Agreement on Illicit Payments Cecily Rose | 187 |
| 15. Corporate Liability for Economic Crimes: A Contested Transnational History Michael Elliot and Felix Lüth | 202 |
| 16. The Illicit Trade in Cultural Objects: From Marginalization to the Current Surge in Attention by Transnational Criminal Policymakers Arianna Visconti | 220 |
| 17. The Emerging History of Transnational Criminal Law Relating to Cybercrime Dominik Brodowski | 236 |
| 18. A Historical Perspective on Modes of Liability in Transnational Criminal Law Anneke Petzsche | 249 |
| 19. A Short History of Jurisdiction in Transnational Criminal Law Florian Jeßberger | 261 |
| 20. The Making of Modern International Extradition Law Joanna Harrington | 276 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 21. The Historical Development of International Law Enforcement Cooperation—The Case of Interpol Saskia Hufnagel | 287 |
| 22. The Acquisition of Legal Status by Individuals in Transnational Criminal Proceedings in Europe Sabine Gless | 300 |
| Index | 319 |