

CONTENTS

List of figures	viii
List of tables	ix
List of contributors	x
Introduction to Journalism, Gender and Power Cynthia Carter, Linda Steiner, and Stuart Allan	xvi
PART I
The gendered politics of news production	1
1 Getting to the top: Women and decision-making in European news media industries Karen Ross and Claudia Padovani	3
2 Women and technology in the newsroom: Vision or reality from data journalism to the news startup era Nikki Usher	18
3 When Arab women (and men) speak: Struggles of women journalists in a gendered news industry Jad Melki and Sarah Mallat	33
4 Seeking women's expertise in the UK broadcast news media Suzanne Franks and Lis Howell	49

5	Pretty in pink: The ongoing importance of appearance in broadcast news April Newton and Linda Steiner	62
6	Women, journalism, and labor unions Carolyn M. Byerly and Sharifa Simon-Roberts	79
PART II
News discourses, sexualization, and sexual violence		95
7	Trending now: Feminism, postfeminism, sexism, and misogyny in British journalism Rosalind Gill and Katie Toms	97
8	US news coverage of transgender lives: A historical and critical review Jamie C. Capuzza	113
9	Gendered violence in, of, and by sport news David Rowe	128
10	Irreconcilable differences? Framing demand in news coverage of UK anti-trafficking legislation Barbara Friedman and Anne Johnston	144
11	Patriarchy and power in the South African news: Competing coverage of the murder of Anene Booysen Nicky Falkof	159
12	No more Page 3? Sexualization, politics, and the UK tabloid press Patricia Holland	174
13	Page 3 journalism: Gender and news cultures in post-reforms India Sahana Udupa	189
PART III
Engendering news audiences and activism		203
14	Refugees and Islam: Representing race, rights, and cohabitation Beverly M. Weber	205

15	Black lives matter and the rise of womanist news narratives Allissa V. Richardson	221
16	Be cute, play with dolls, and stick to tea parties: Journalism, girls, and power Cynthia Carter	236
17	Mediated, gendered activism in the “post-Arab Spring” era: Lessons from Tunisia’s “Jasmine Revolution” Sahar Khamis	251
18	The (in)visibility of Arab women in political journalism Noha Mellor	265
19	Obstacles to Chinese women journalists’ career advancement Haiyan Wang	279
PART IV
Politics and identities in the news		295
20	Feminism and gender in the post-truth public sphere Catharine Lumby	297
21	Women and war photography: En/gendering alternative histories Stuart Allan	312
22	The gendered racialization of Puerto Ricans in TV news coverage of Hurricane Maria Isabel Molina-Guzmán	331
23	When women run for office: Press coverage of Hillary Clinton during the 2016 presidential campaign Erika Falk	347
24	Conceptualizing masculinity and femininity in the British press Paul Baker and Helen Baker	363
	Index	383