
Contents

Introduction	1
Horst Albach and Andreas Pinkwart
 Part I European Cities in Global Competition
Dynamic Competition in Space: Theoretical Models, Empirical Evidence, Political Challenges	9
Karl-Heinz Paqué
Increasing the Innovative Capacity of European Cities: Making Use of Proven Concepts from the National Level	19
Marcus Max Haberstroh and Andreas Pinkwart
 Part II City Management and Direct Democracy
Open Government: Exploring Patterns of Mobile Interaction Between Citizens and Local Government	57
Dennis Hilgers and Lisa Schmidhuber
Building the Smart City: Leipzig	73
Tanja Korzer, Beate Ginzler, and Nadja Riedel
Location Communication in Leipzig and Thoughts About Destination Management	93
Christian Albert Jacke
 Part III Success Factors in Global Competition Among Cities
Key Factors for Successful City Marketing: An Example from Münster	113
Bernadette Spinnen

Strategies for Cities in Global Competition: An Essay on Spatial Economics and Management Science	123
Horst Albach
 Part IV Complementarity Between Region and City
The Significance of the Region for Urban Growth: The Example of Bonn and the Rhein-Sieg District	161
Hermann Tengler
The Digital City: Using the Example of “Mönchengladbach on eBay”	187
Gerrit Heinemann and Stefan Wenzel
 Part V Cost Efficiency in City Management
A Mechanism Design Approach to Planning Problems in Intermodal Transport Logistics of Large City Sea Ports and Megahubs	215
Dominik Kress, Sebastian Meiswinkel, Jenny Nossack, and Erwin Pesch	