

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
Introduction	1
PART 1
The public service media concept – Western Europe and post-communist countries	9
1 Public service media – public broadcasters: definitions	11
Public broadcaster – basic concepts	11
Changes – new media, new broadcasters, new audience	15
Public service media – the need for redefinition	18
The remit of the public broadcaster – redefinition once again	22
Conclusion	27
2 The PSM model in post-communist countries	29
The model of media in post-communist countries	29
Hungary	36
The Czech Republic	40
Conclusion	45
PART 2
Public television journalists in Poland	47
3 Public television in Poland	49
The development of PSM in Poland from communism to liberal democracy	49

vi Contents

The structure, objectives and financing of public television in Poland	60
Conclusions	70

4 Journalists of Polish television	72
The methodology of qualitative research – journalists of TVP	72
Diversity as a part of public service	76
Objectivity and reliability	82
Journalistic responsibility	86
Tabloidisation and commercialisation	88
Education and shaping the audience	90
Technological transformation in the journalistic environment of TVP	93
Intergenerational relationships and the transfer of knowledge and skills	98
Job security and comfort at work	100
Politicisation and political pressures	103
Conclusion	106
Conclusion	110
The list of respondents	114
Bibliography	116
Index	128

vi Contents

The structure, objectives and financing of public television in Poland	60
Conclusions	70

4 Journalists of Polish television	72
The methodology of qualitative research – journalists of TVP	72
Diversity as a part of public service	76
Objectivity and reliability	82
Journalistic responsibility	86
Tabloidisation and commercialisation	88
Education and shaping the audience	90
Technological transformation in the journalistic environment of TVP	93
Intergenerational relationships and the transfer of knowledge and skills	98
Job security and comfort at work	100
Politicisation and political pressures	103
Conclusion	106
Conclusion	110
The list of respondents	114
Bibliography	116
Index	128