

CONTENTS

PREFACE

How We Wrote This Book 1

Generalizing Field Observations and Producing Statistical Equivalency 1

Ordinary Identification and Scientific Qualification 3

From Comparison to Judgment 4

Construction of Proofs and Tension between the General and the Particular 7

The Tension between Different Forms of Generality 8

Attention to Critical Operations 10

Generality and the Common Good: Concepts of Worth in Political Philosophy 12

The Search for a Common Model 14

The Social Bond Put to the Test of Things 16

The Line of Argument 18

PART ONE: THE IMPERATIVE TO JUSTIFY 23

ONE

The Social Sciences and the Legitimacy of Agreement 25

The Critique of Sociology's Lack of Realism 26

Individualism: A Different Social Metaphysics 27

Political Metaphysics as a Social Science 28

The Question of Agreement 31

Association and Forms of Generality 32

The Order of the General and the Particular 35

The Requirement of General Agreement and the Legitimacy of Order 37

The Reality Test and Prudent Judgment 40

TWO

The Foundation of Agreement in Political Philosophy:

The Example of the Market Polity 43

A Social Bond Based on an Inclination toward Exchange in One's Own Interest 44

vi CONTENTS

Individuals in Concert in Their Lust for Goods	48
The Sympathetic Disposition and the Position of Impartial Spectator	53

PART TWO: THE POLITIES 63

THREE

Political Orders and a Model of Justice	65
Political Philosophies of the Common Good	66
The Polity Model	74
An Illegitimate Order: Eugenics	80

FOUR

Political Forms of Worth	83
The Inspired Polity	83
The Domestic Polity	90
The Polity of Fame	98
The Civic Polity	107
The Industrial Polity	118

PART THREE: THE COMMON WORLDS 125

FIVE

Judgment Put to the Test	127
Situated Judgment	127
The Polity Extended to a Common World	130
Tests	133
Reporting on Situations	138
A Framework for Analyzing the Common Worlds	140
The Sense of the Common: The Moral Sense and the Sense of What Is Natural	144
The Arts of Living in Different Worlds	148

SIX

The Six Worlds	159
The Inspired World	159
The Domestic World	164
The World of Fame	178
The Civic World	185
The Market World	193
The Industrial World	203

CONTENTS vii

PART FOUR: CRITIQUES 213

SEVEN

Worlds in Conflict, Judgments in Question 215

Unveiling 215

Causes of Discord and the Transport of Worths 219

Clashes and Denunciations 223

The Monstrosity of Composite Setups 225

Setting Up Situations that Hold Together 228

The Humanity of an Equitable Judgment 231

Free Will: Knowing How to Close and Open

One's Eyes 232

EIGHT

The Critical Matrix 237

Critiques from the Inspired World 237

Critiques from the Domestic World 241

Critiques from the World of Fame 247

Critiques from the Civic World 251

Critiques from the Market World 261

Critiques from the Industrial World 269

PART FIVE: ASSUAGING CRITICAL TENSIONS 275

NINE

Compromising for the Common Good 277

Beyond Testing to Compromising 277

The Fragility of Compromises 278

An Example of a Complex Figure: Denunciation

Supported by Compromise 282

Composing Compromises and Forming Politics 283

Developing a State Compromise: Toward a

Civic-Industrial Polity 285

TEN

Figures of Compromise 293

Compromises Involving the Inspired World 293

Compromises Involving the Domestic World 304

Compromises Involving the World of Fame 317

Compromises Involving the Civic World 325

Compromises Involving the Market World 332

viii CONTENTS

ELEVEN

Relativization	336
Private Arrangements	336
Insinuation	338
Flight from Justification	339
Relativism	340
Violence and Justification	343
Afterword: Toward a Pragmatics of Reflection	347
The Place of Justifications in the Gamut of Actions	347
Below the Level of Public Judgment: Determining the Appropriate Action in Light of a Snag	348
From Anger to Crisis	350
The Moment of Truth in Judgment	351
The Tension of Judgment and the Qualification of Ungraspable Persons	352
Judgment between Power and Oblivion	354
The Humane Use of Judgment and Tolerance in Action	355
Knowledge about Actions	356

NOTES	359
-------	-----

WORKS CITED	375
-------------	-----