

CONTENTS

	Introduction: After the Anthropocene	1
1	Wildlife: Companion Elephants and New Grounds for Multinatural Conservation	19
2	Nonhuman Charisma: Counting Corncrakes and Learning to Be Affected in Multispecies Worlds	35
3	Biodiversity as Biopolitics: Cutting Up Wildlife and Choreographing Conservation in the United Kingdom	57
4	Conservation as Composition: Securing Premodern Ecologies in the Hebrides	77
5	Wild Experiments: Rewilding Future Ecologies at the Oostvaardersplassen	97
6	Wildlife on Screen: The Affective Logics and Micropolitics of Elephant Imagery	119
7	Bringing Wildlife to Market: Flagship Species, Lively Capital, and the Commodification of Interspecies Encounters	139
8	Spaces for Wildlife: Alternative Topologies for Life in Novel Ecosystems	159
	Conclusion: Cosmopolitics for Wildlife	179
	Acknowledgments	195
	Notes	197
	Bibliography	229
	Index	261