

Brief contents

Contents	vii
List of figures and tables	xv
Guided tour	xviii
Preface	xxv
About the authors	xxix
Publisher's acknowledgements	xxx
Chapter 1 What is social psychology?	1
Chapter 2 Social thinking	24
Chapter 3 Self, identity and society	62
Chapter 4 Attitudes and persuasion	92
Chapter 5 Conformity and social change	122
Chapter 6 People in groups	152
Chapter 7 Prejudice and intergroup relations	192
Chapter 8 Hurting other people	228
Chapter 9 Helping other people	260
Chapter 10 Attraction and close relationships	286
Chapter 11 Culture and communication	320
Summary	320
Literature, film and TV	321
Glossary	351
References	361
Author index	405
Subject index	413

Chapter 2 Social thinking 24

Forming impressions of people	26
Which impressions are important?	28
Schemas and categories	32
Categories and prototypes	32
Categories and stereotypes	34
How we use and acquire schemas	35

Contents

List of figures and tables	xv
Guided tour	xviii
Preface	xxv
About the authors	xxix
Publisher's acknowledgements	xxx

Chapter 1 What is social psychology? 1

What is social psychology?	2
Levels of explanation	3
Doing social psychology	5
Science	6
Testing hypotheses	6
Experiments	8
Other research methods	10
Doing research ethically	12
A short history of social psychology	14
The early days	14
Social psychology as science	15
Europe	18
Back to the future	19
Summary	20
Literature, film and TV	21
Guided questions	21
Learn more	22

Chapter 2 Social thinking 24

Forming impressions of people	26
Which impressions are important?	28
Schemas and categories	32
Categories and prototypes	32
Categories and stereotypes	34
How we use and acquire schemas	35

Perceiving and remembering people	37
Social encoding	37
Memory for people	38
Social inference	41
The illusory correlation	41
Short cuts in making inferences	42
Seeking the causes of behaviour	43
How do we attribute causality, why is it important?	43
Causal attribution in action	46
Biases in attributing motives	48
From acts to dispositions: correspondence bias	48
The actor–observer effect	50
False consensus	50
Self-serving biases	50
Explaining our social world	52
Intergroup attribution	52
Social representations	55
Rumour	55
Conspiracy theories	55
Summary	57
Literature, film and TV	58
Guided questions	59
Learn more	60

Chapter 3 Self, identity and society

62

The self in history	64
The psychodynamic self	65
The self: 'I' or 'We'?	65
The self and social interaction	66
Self-awareness	68
Self-knowledge	69
Self-schemas	70
Learning about the self	70
Social comparison and self-knowledge	72
Self-regulation	73
Many selves, multiple identities	75
Distinguishing selves and identities	76
The search for self-coherence	77
Self-motives	77
Self-assessment and self-verification	78
Self-enhancement	78
Self-esteem	81
Individual differences	83
In pursuit of self-esteem	84
Self-presentation	86
Strategic self-presentation	86
Expressive self-presentation	88

Summary	88
Literature, film and TV	89
Guided questions	90
Learn more	90

Chapter 4 Attitudes and persuasion

92

What are attitudes?	94
Attitudes have a structure	94
Attitudes have a purpose	95
Where do attitudes come from?	95
Experience	95
Sources of learning	96
Self-perception theory	97
How attitudes are revealed	97
Clues from our body	97
Action clues	97
Implicit attitudes	98
Can attitudes predict actions?	99
When attitudes are accessible	100
When attitudes are strong	101
Attitudes and being rational	103
Attitudes can change: experiencing dissonance	105
Effort justification	106
Induced compliance	107
Free choice	110
The science of persuasion	110
Communicating persuasively	111
Dual-process routes to persuasion	114
Elaboration-likelihood model	114
Heuristic-systematic model	115
Resisting persuasion	116
Reactance	116
Forewarning	117
The inoculation effect	117
Summary	119
Literature, film and TV	120
Guided questions	121
Learn more	121

228

Chapter 5 Conformity and social change

122

Norms	124
How norms form	125
Conformity	127
Yielding to the majority	127
Who conforms?	129
Culture and conformity	130
Context and conformity	130
Influence processes	130
Compliance	133
Tactics for enhancing compliance	133
Obedience to authority	137
Milgram's obedience studies	138
Factors influencing obedience	140
Some ethical considerations	142
Minority influence and social change	143
Beyond conformity	143
Being consistent	144
Being included	146
Is minority influence actually different?	147
Summary	148
Literature, film and TV	149
Guided questions	150
Learn more	150

Chapter 6 People in groups

152

What are groups?	154
The presence of others	155
Performing in public	155
Loafing in groups	159
How groups work	162
Group cohesion	162
Group socialisation	163
Group structure	166
Why do people join groups?	170
Leadership	172
Great leaders	173
Theories about kinds of leaders	174
Leaders lead groups	178
Trust, justice and leadership	180
Men, women and leadership	180
Decision making in groups	181
Rules for making decisions	181
Group memory	182

Brainstorming	184
Groupthink	184
Group polarisation	186
Juries are groups too	187
Summary	189
Literature, film and TV	190
Guided questions	191
Learn more	191

Chapter 7 Prejudice and intergroup relations

192

The nature of prejudice and discrimination	194
What is prejudice?	195
What is discrimination?	196
Two 'isms': race and gender	198
Racism	198
Sexism	200
Self-fulfilling prophecy and stereotype threat	203
Ultimate discrimination: violence and genocide	205
Prejudice and individual differences	206
The authoritarian personality	206
Politically-based theories	207
Intergroup relations and social unrest	208
Relative deprivation	209
Collective protest and social change	211
Realistic conflict theory	212
Social identity theory	214
Minimal groups	214
Social identity and intergroup relations	217
Improving intergroup relations	218
Educating for tolerance	219
Contact between groups	220
Superordinate goals	222
Groups that negotiate	222
Summary	224
Literature, film and TV	225
Guided questions	226
Learn more	226

Chapter 8 Hurting other people

228

What is aggression?	230
Defining aggression	230
Measuring aggression	231
What do the major theories say?	231

Biological theories of aggression	232
Psychodynamic theory	232
Ethology	233
Evolutionary theory	233
Limitations of biological arguments	234
Social theories of aggression	234
Frustration and aggression	234
Arousal and aggression	236
Learning to be aggressive	237
Role of the mass media	238
Mass media	238
Memory gets to work	241
Responding to erotic images	242
Personal and situational variations	244
Personality and hormonal effects	244
Alcohol and the social context	245
Disinhibition, deindividuation and dehumanisation	246
Situations that trigger aggression	248
Societal influences	249
Gender variation	249
Cultural variation	252
War: aggression on a grand scale	253
Reducing aggression	255
Letting off steam	255
Community solutions	255
Summary	257
Literature, film and TV	258
Guided questions	259
Learn more	259

Chapter 9 Helping other people

260

What is prosocial behaviour?	262
Prosocial behaviour can be varied	262
Biological approaches	263
A phenomenon of nature?	263
Do helpers feel empathic?	264
Social approaches	266
Learning to be helpful	267
The impact of attribution	268
Norms for helping	269
Bystander apathy	270
Helping in an emergency	272
Who are the helpful people?	274
Gender differences	274
Competence: 'have skills, will help'	274
Living in big cities	276

What motivates people to be prosocial?	277
The keys to being helpful	277
Promoting prosocial behaviour	278
Volunteers: the ultimate helpers	281
Summary	282
Literature, film and TV	283
Guided questions	283
Learn more	284

Chapter 10 Attraction and close relationships 286

Attractive people	288
Evolution and attraction	289
The role of our genes	289
What increases liking?	291
Proximity	291
Familiarity	292
Similarity	293
Social matching	293
Attraction and rewards	296
A reinforcement approach	296
Relationships as a social exchange	296
Social exchange, equity and justice	299
Attachment	301
Affiliation	301
Attachment styles	303
Close relationships	305
What is love?	305
Love and romance	306
Love and marriage	309
Gay and lesbian relationships	311
Relationships that work (and those that don't)	311
Maintaining relationships	311
Does your partner meet your ideals?	312
Relationship breakdown	313
Summary	316
Literature, film and TV	316
Guided questions	317
Learn more	318

Chapter 11 Culture and communication 320

Culture	322
Defining and studying culture	322

Culture's impact on thought and action	323
Individualism, collectivism and the self	327
Two psyches, two selves	328
Acculturation	329
Multicultural societies	330
Communication	332
Origins of language	332
Language, thought and society	333
Language and culture	335
Communicating without words	339
Expressing our emotions	339
Eye contact	343
Postures and gestures	344
Up close and personal	345
Concluding thoughts	347
Summary	347
Literature, film and TV	348
Guided questions	349
Learn more	349
Glossary	351
References	361
Author index	405
Subject index	413

Supporting resources

Visit www.mypsychlab.co.uk for valuable learning resources.

MyPsychLab for students

- Complete student self-assessment and revision centre including diagnostic tests, a customised study plan, multiple choice and essay questions
- Media library for quick access to video and audio resources of interviews with experts, re-enactments of classic experiments, and extended examples of social psychological concepts in action.
- Annotated links to relevant websites for further research
- Key term flashcards and an online glossary

For instructors

- Comprehensive Instructor's Manual
- Extensive test bank of question material
- PowerPoint slides
- Additional video and audio-based Media Assignments

For more information please contact your local Pearson Education sales representative or visit www.mypsychlab.co.uk