

Detailed contents

Notes on contributors	xxi
Table of abbreviations	xxiii
Table of legislation	xxvi
Table of cases	lviii
1 Introduction	1
1 Introduction	1
2 The development of EU law	2
3 Themes	4
3.1 Input legitimacy	5
3.2 Output legitimacy	6
4 Conclusion	8
2 Development of the EU	10
1 Introduction	10
2 Nationalism and the origins of the EU	13
3 From ECSC to EEC	14
3.1 European Coal and Steel Community: ECSC	14
3.2 European Defence Community and European Political Community: EDC and EPC	14
3.3 European Economic Community: EEC	15
4 From EEC to the Single European Act	17
4.1 Tensions within the Community	17
4.2 Single European Act: SEA	19
5 From the SEA to the Nice Treaty	21
5.1 Maastricht Treaty: the Treaty on European Union	21
5.2 Treaty of Amsterdam	23
5.3 Treaty of Nice	25
5.4 Charter of Rights	26
6 From Nice to Lisbon	26
6.1 The Laeken Declaration	26
6.2 Constitutional Treaty	27
6.3 Lisbon Treaty	28
7 Recent challenges for the EU	31
7.1 The financial crisis	31
7.2 Brexit	32
7.3 Migration crisis	33
7.4 'Rule of law' crisis	34
8 Theories of integration	34
8.1 Neofunctionalism	34

8.2 Liberal intergovernmentalism	35
8.3 Multi-level governance	36
8.4 Rational choice institutionalism	37
8.5 Constructivism	37
9 Conclusion	38
Further reading	38
3 The EU's political institutions	40
1 Introduction	40
2 The concept of representative democracy	41
2.1 Representative democracy and the EU	42
3 Commission	44
3.1 Introduction	44
3.2 Composition	44
3.3 Powers	49
3.4 Functioning	51
4 European Parliament	51
4.1 Introduction	51
4.2 Composition	52
4.3 Powers	54
4.4 Functioning	57
5 Council	58
5.1 Introduction	58
5.2 Composition	58
5.3 Powers	59
5.4 Functioning	60
6 European Council	67
6.1 Introduction	67
6.2 Composition	67
6.3 Powers	69
6.4 Functioning	72
7 Transparency of the EU's political institutions	72
8 Conclusion	73
Further reading	74
Chapter acknowledgements	74
4 Constitutionalism and the European Union	75
1 Introduction: constitutionalism(s)	75
2 Formal constitutionalism: contested supremacy	76
2.1 Legal supremacy: two perspectives	78
2.2 Contested hierarchies: federalism and constitutional pluralism	80
3 Democratic constitutionalism I: popular sovereignty	82
3.1 Unitary constitutionalism: 'We, the People'	82
3.2 Federal constitutionalism: 'We, the Peoples'	83
4 Democratic constitutionalism II: popular representation	85
4.1 Democratic legitimacy and the Union legislature	85
4.2 Democratic legitimacy and the Union executive	88

5	Liberal constitutionalism I: separation of powers	90
5.1	The 'classic' separation of powers principle(s)	90
5.2	Separating 'powers' in the EU	93
6	Liberal constitutionalism II: fundamental rights	96
6.1	Fundamental rights as 'general principles'	97
6.2	The EU Charter of Fundamental Rights	98
7	Conclusion	99
	Further reading	100
5	Legislating in the European Union	101
1	Introduction	101
2	Forms of legislative and other normative acts	103
2.1	Regulations	104
2.2	Directives	104
2.3	'Rule-making decisions'	105
2.4	International agreements	106
2.5	Interinstitutional agreements	106
2.6	Recommendations, opinions, and other non-binding acts	107
3	Hierarchy of norms	108
4	Competences and conferral	109
4.1	'Competence' as ability and 'competence' as power	109
4.2	Conferral	110
4.3	Grants of legislative power ('legal bases')	111
4.4	Classification of competences	113
5	Subsidiarity	117
5.1	The subsidiarity test	117
5.2	Protocol No 2: the 'early warning mechanism'	119
5.3	Scope of the early warning mechanism	120
5.4	Judicial review of compliance with the subsidiarity test	122
6	Proportionality	123
7	Legislative and other decision-making procedures	126
7.1	Legislative and assimilated procedures	127
7.2	Special legislative procedures	130
7.3	Innominate non-legislative procedures ('INPs')	131
7.4	Consultation and assimilated requirements	132
8	Delegated and implementing acts	132
8.1	Delegated acts	133
8.2	Implementing acts	135
8.3	Borderline between delegated and implementing acts	140
9	Enhanced cooperation	143
10	Treaty revision	144
10.1	Ordinary revision procedures	144
10.2	Simplified revision procedures	145
10.3	Accession and withdrawal	147
11	The democratic credentials of the European Union	148
11.1	Case law origins	148
11.2	Reform of decision-making procedures and principles	148
11.3	Treaty provisions on democratic principles	149

12 Conclusion: Union law and Union politics	150
Further reading	152
Chapter acknowledgements	153
6 The effects of EU law in the national legal systems	154
1 Introduction	154
2 EU law in the Member States: institutions, procedures, principles	155
3 Direct effect	157
3.1 Van Gend en Loos	157
3.2 The conditions and the real test	159
3.3 Direct effect in action	160
3.4 Differentiation I: types of legal acts	161
3.5 Differentiation II: types of legal relationship	164
3.6 No horizontal direct effect of directives: the rule and the exception	166
4 Indirect effect	168
4.1 The notion	169
4.2 The scope	170
4.3 Interpretation unbounded?	171
4.4 Introducing some limits	172
5 Primacy	174
5.1 The Court's view	174
5.2 The national views	178
6 National procedures for enforcing EU law rights in the Member States	180
6.1 The not-so-autonomous national procedural autonomy	181
6.2 From equivalence/effectiveness to the principle of effective judicial protection	182
6.3 State liability	183
7 Connecting the dots: the interplay of the different principles	185
8 Conclusion	188
Further reading	189
7 EU law: is it international law?	191
1 Introduction	191
2 EU law as a sub-system of international law	192
2.1 The EU as an international organization?	192
2.2 The international origins of the European integration process	193
2.3 The later evolution of the European Communities and the European Union	194
3 The specific features of EU law	199
3.1 The incomparability of the EU's legal features	200
3.2 The primacy of EU law, a federal characteristic?	201
3.3 Finding a name to describe the EU's specificity	204
3.4 The constitutional perspective on EU law	206
4 The EU as object and subject of international law	207
5 Conclusion	210
Further reading	210

8 General principles of EU law and EU administrative law	212
1 Introduction	212
2 Organizational levels and the distribution of powers in implementing EU law	213
2.1 Conferral of powers on the Union	213
2.2 Implementation of EU law by the Member States	214
2.3 Delegation of powers within the Union	217
3 Criteria for legality	219
3.1 Proportionality	220
3.2 Rule of law: transparency, legality, legal certainty, legitimate expectations	222
3.3 Good administration	228
3.4 Information-related rights: freedom of information and data protection	233
3.5 The right to an effective judicial remedy and additional rights of defence	235
4 Conclusion	241
Further reading	242
9 Fundamental rights in the European Union	243
1 Introduction	243
2 Historical background and development of the case law	244
2.1 The development of the case law of the Court of Justice	245
2.2 The scope of application of fundamental rights as general principles	247
3 The response of the political institutions: from the 1977 Declaration to the Lisbon Treaty	252
3.1 Article 7 TEU and the rule of law crisis	253
4 The Charter of Fundamental Rights	256
4.1 The drafting of the Charter	257
4.2 The structure of the Charter	258
4.3 The substantive provisions of the Charter	259
4.4 The horizontal provisions	261
5 The EU and the ECHR	270
5.1 Background to accession	271
5.2 EU accession to the ECHR	275
5.3 Opinion 2/13: the special nature of EU law	279
6 Conclusion	280
Further reading	282
10 Judicial protection before the Court of Justice of the European Union	283
1 Introduction	283
2 The structure and jurisdiction of the Court of Justice of the European Union at a glance	284
3 Direct actions	289
3.1 Infringement proceedings	289
3.2 The action for annulment	293
3.3 The action for failure to act	312
3.4 The plea of illegality	313
3.5 The action for damages	314

4 Preliminary references	316
4.1 What constitutes a 'court or tribunal of a Member State'?	317
4.2 Types of preliminary references: references on the interpretation and references on the validity of EU law	318
4.3 Discretion to refer and limits to this discretion	321
4.4 The duty to refer and the exceptions to this duty	323
4.5 Effects of a preliminary ruling	324
5 Interim relief	324
6 The relationship between the Treaty remedies	326
7 Conclusion	331
Further reading	332
Chapter acknowledgements	333
11 The internal market and the philosophies of market integration	334
1 Introduction	334
2 The nature of the internal market: three models	335
2.1 Three models of market integration	335
2.2 The implications of the different models	336
3 The nature of the internal market: the historical experience	341
3.1 The common market	341
3.2 The single market	343
3.3 Economic union?	347
4 The law of the internal market: the power to harmonize	354
4.1 The power	354
4.2 The exceptions	360
5 The law of the internal market: the types of harmonization	361
6 Conclusion	362
Further reading	363
12 Free movement of goods	365
1 Introduction	365
2 The customs union	367
2.1 The concept of a customs union	367
2.2 Goods originating in a Member State and goods in free circulation	367
3 The meaning of 'goods'	368
4 Nationality and residence	369
5 Customs duties and charges of equivalent effect	369
5.1 Customs duties	369
5.2 Charges of equivalent effect	369
5.3 Permissible charges	371
5.4 Charges imposed at the internal boundaries of Member States	372
5.5 Remedies	372
6 Quantitative restrictions and measures of equivalent effect	372
6.1 Quantitative restriction: imports and exports	373
6.2 Measures of equivalent effect: imports	373
6.3 Measures of equivalent effect: exports	380

6.4 Purely national measures	381
6.5 Justification under Article 36 and the mandatory requirements	382
6.6 Remedies	387
7 Discriminatory internal taxation	387
7.1 Article 110(1) TFEU	388
7.2 Article 110(2) TFEU: competing products	390
7.3 The holistic approach to Article 110 TFEU	391
7.4 Justification	392
7.5 Remedies	392
8 The boundary between the provisions on free movement of goods	392
8.1 The two Danish cars judgments	393
8.2 CEEs and discriminatory internal taxation	393
8.3 What if there are two distinct, but closely linked measures?	394
9 Conclusion	395
Further reading	395
Chapter acknowledgements	396
13 Free movement of natural persons and citizenship of the Union	397
1 Introduction	397
2 Does EU law apply at all?	400
2.1 Introduction	400
2.2 EU nationality	401
2.3 The interstate element	401
2.4 Economic activity	403
3 Which Treaty provision is engaged?	404
3.1 Free movement of workers	404
3.2 Establishment	406
3.3 Services	406
3.4 Union citizens	408
4 Does the EU measure apply to this particular person or entity?	408
5 What rights do migrants enjoy?	409
5.1 Introduction	409
5.2 The right of residence for EU migrants and their family members, and the principle of equal treatment	410
5.3 Other rights specifically attached to EU citizens qua citizens	421
6 What rules/practices are prohibited by the Treaty?	424
6.1 Introduction	424
6.2 The shift to market access	425
6.3 The advantage of the market access approach	428
6.4 The criticisms of the market access approach	429
6.5 The response to the criticisms	430
7 Derogations and justifications	431
7.1 Express derogations	432
7.2 Public interest justifications	434
8 Effect of fundamental rights and proportionality	435
9 Conclusion	436
Further reading	437

14 Free movement of legal persons and the provision of services	438
1 Introduction	438
2 The Treaty requirements	439
2.1 Introduction	439
2.2 Which provision of the Treaty is engaged?	440
2.3 Who/what are the subjects of Articles 49 and 56 TFEU?	448
2.4 Has national law infringed the Treaty provision?	448
2.5 Can that breach be justified and are the steps taken proportionate?	455
3 Secondary legislation in the field of freedom of establishment and the free movement of services	461
3.1 Introduction	461
3.2 The Services Directive 2006/123	461
3.3 EU company law	467
4 Conclusion	476
Further reading	478
Chapter acknowledgements	478
15 Free movement of capital	479
1 Introduction	479
2 The legal framework and its origins	480
2.1 The evolution of the original rules on capital	480
2.2 Overview of the current provisions	482
3 Material scope of the capital rules	483
3.1 Defining capital	483
3.2 Relationship with other Treaty freedoms	484
4 Personal and geographical scope of the capital rules	488
4.1 Against whom can the capital rules be invoked?	488
4.2 When can an EU national invoke the capital rules against their own Member State?	489
4.3 Third countries	490
5 Restrictions	492
5.1 Equal treatment and non-discrimination	492
5.2 What constitutes a restriction?	493
6 Exceptions and justifications	494
6.1 Treaty-based limitations and exceptions	494
6.2 Justifying restrictions	498
6.3 Procedural requirements applied to justifications and exceptions	504
6.4 The limits of restrictions	504
7 Conclusion	509
Further reading	509
Chapter acknowledgements	509
16 Exceptions to the free movement rules	510
1 Introduction	510
2 The Treaty framework: derogations	511
2.1 The role of derogation and the broader legal framework	511

2.2	Derogation and EU legislation	512
2.3	Overview of the Treaty-based derogation grounds	513
3	The justification framework: public interest requirements	516
3.1	From 'mandatory requirements' to 'overriding requirements in the public interest'	516
3.2	Discriminatory and non-discriminatory restrictions	518
4	Application of the derogation and justification frameworks	521
4.1	General principles	521
4.2	The jurisdiction of the Court of Justice	526
4.3	The burden and standard of proof	527
4.4	Fundamental rights as limits to free movement	528
5	Proportionality	532
5.1	Overview of the proportionality test	532
5.2	Appropriateness	533
5.3	Necessity	533
5.4	Proportionality as a tool for mediating public interest	534
6	Derogating from the free movement of persons	536
6.1	Deportation and Directive 2004/38: general principles	537
6.2	Deportation on economic grounds	540
7	Conclusion	542
	Further reading	543
17	Competition law	544
1	Introduction	544
2	Overview of EU competition law	545
2.1	EU competition law	545
2.2	Objectives of EU competition law	546
3	Enforcement and consequences of infringement	548
3.1	Enforcement by the Commission and NCAs	548
3.2	Private enforcement through civil litigation in the national courts	550
3.3	The consistent enforcement of Articles 101 and 102 in the EU?	551
4	Who do Articles 101 and 102 TFEU apply to and when do they apply?	552
4.1	Undertakings	552
4.2	May (appreciably) affect trade between Member States	554
4.3	Exclusions	555
5	Identifying anti-competitive agreements and conduct	556
5.1	The use of economic analysis	556
5.2	Form and effects: type 1 and type 2 errors	557
6	Article 101 TFEU	558
6.1	Introduction	558
6.2	Agreements, concerted practices, and decisions	559
6.3	Identifying which agreements infringe Article 101 TFEU	561
7	Article 102 TFEU	570
7.1	Introduction	570
7.2	Dominance	570
7.3	Identifying conduct which infringes Article 102	573
8	Conclusion	582
	Further reading	582

18 Economic and Monetary Union	583
1 Introduction	583
2 History and design of EMU	584
3 The Stability and Growth Pact and measures of coordination before the crisis	586
4 The euro area crisis and its relationship to EMU	587
5 Addressing the crisis	591
5.1 Stabilization: the ECB and bailouts	592
5.2 Budgetary and economic coordination measures	598
5.3 Financial regulation and banking union	602
6 The future of EMU	603
6.1 Democratic legitimacy	606
6.2 'Reserved domains' and the disappearing state	607
7 Conclusion	610
Further reading	610
19 Labour and equality law	612
1 Introduction	612
2 The legal framework and evolution of EU labour and equality law	613
2.1 The evolution of EU labour and equality law and Treaty developments	613
2.2 Law-making and legal sources in EU labour and equality law	615
2.3 The Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and the constitutionalization of EU labour and equality law	617
3 Labour law	618
3.1 Restructuring of enterprises and information, consultation, and worker participation	618
3.2 Freedom to provide services, freedom of establishment, and national collective labour law	622
3.3 Flexible work and working conditions	627
3.4 EU and national labour law in times of economic crisis	630
4 Equality law	631
4.1 Introduction to equality law	631
4.2 Gender equality	633
4.3 Comprehensive equality and protection against discrimination on other grounds	638
5 Conclusion	641
Further reading	642
20 EU health law	643
1 Introduction	643
2 Patient mobility	644
2.1 Migrant workers: coordination of health care systems	644
2.2 Freedom to receive health care services	646
2.3 The 'Patients' Rights Directive'	650
3 Health care professionals	653
3.1 The 'sectoral' approach	653
3.2 The 'general' approach	654

3.3	Concerns about EU law on health professionals	655
4	Health care institutions	656
4.1	Freedom of establishment/freedom to provide services	657
4.2	Competition law	658
4.3	Assessment	660
5	Medical devices and pharmaceuticals	661
5.1	Medical devices	661
5.2	Pharmaceuticals	663
6	Blood, organs, and human tissue	664
6.1	Patient safety	664
6.2	Intellectual property	665
7	Public health	666
8	Global contexts	668
8.1	Health through the common commercial policy	669
8.2	Health through development cooperation	669
9	Conclusion	671
	Further reading	672
21	Environmental law	673
1	Introduction	673
2	The legal framework	674
2.1	Evolution of EU environmental law	674
2.2	Objectives of EU environmental policy	680
2.3	Principles of EU environmental policy	682
2.4	Environmental integration	685
2.5	Sustainable development	686
3	Nature protection	686
3.1	The Wild Birds Directive	687
3.2	The Habitats Directive	688
4	Water	691
4.1	The Water Framework Directive	691
4.2	The Common Implementation Strategy	693
5	Climate change	696
5.1	An overview of EU climate law	696
5.2	Key components of the EU climate law	697
5.3	International reach of EU climate law	699
6	Conclusion	702
	Further reading	702
22	European consumer law	704
1	Introduction	704
2	The negative impact of EU law on national consumer protection rules	706
3	Consumer protection and the internal market	707
3.1	Legal basis	707
3.2	EU consumer law as a driver for greater cross-border trade	708
3.3	Legislative approach	709

4	Information policy and unfair commercial practices	710
4.1	Information obligations	710
4.2	Information and behavioural economics	711
5	Right of withdrawal	712
5.1	Justification	712
5.2	Harmonization	712
5.3	Effective consumer protection?	713
6	Rules establishing consumer expectations	713
7	Product safety	714
7.1	Public law control and consumer protection	714
7.2	General Product Safety Directive	715
8	Product liability	715
9	Unfair terms	717
10	Sale of goods	718
11	General comments on substantive rights	720
11.1	Goods and services	720
11.2	General standards	720
11.3	Channelling of liability	721
11.4	Minimum content	722
11.5	Extent of harmonization	724
11.6	Cross-border-only rules	725
12	Enforcement and redress	725
12.1	Methods of enforcement	726
12.2	Access to justice	727
12.3	Alternative dispute resolution	728
12.4	Collective redress	728
13	Conclusion	728
	Further reading	729
	Chapter acknowledgements	730
23	EU external action	731
1	Introduction	731
2	The foundations of EU external action	733
2.1	In search of consistency and effectiveness	733
2.2	The principle of conferral	734
2.3	The distinction between ordinary EU external action and the CFSP	735
2.4	The CFSP	736
2.5	The common principles and objectives of EU external action	737
3	The existence of EU external competences	739
3.1	The fundamentals	739
3.2	Implied competences	740
4	The nature of EU external competences	742
4.1	The fundamentals	742
4.2	Exclusive external competence on the basis of Article 3(2) TFEU	743
4.3	Consequences of exclusive competence	747
4.4	Non-exclusive competences	749

5	Decision-making in EU external action	753
5.1	The ordinary Union method	753
5.2	The CFSP	757
5.3	The High Representative and the European External Action Service	763
6	External representation and international agreements	764
6.1	External representation	764
6.2	International agreements	766
7	Managing the vertical division of EU external competences	773
7.1	Mixed agreements	774
7.2	Sincere cooperation	777
8	Managing the horizontal division of EU external competences	785
8.1	Pre-Lisbon	785
8.2	Post-Lisbon	786
9	Conclusion	789
	Further reading	790
24	EU criminal law	792
1	Introduction	792
2	What is EU criminal law?	793
2.1	Why does EU criminal law exist?	793
2.2	Tensions	794
2.3	Evolution and sources	796
3	Organs	802
3.1	OLAF	802
3.2	Europol	803
3.3	Eurojust	804
3.4	The European Public Prosecutor's Office	806
4	Cooperation between law enforcement agencies	809
5	Mutual legal assistance and mutual recognition	811
5.1	What is mutual recognition?	811
5.2	The EAW: its origins, and its main features	813
5.3	Criticisms of the EAW	814
5.4	The European Investigation Order	816
6	Harmonization of substantive criminal law	818
7	Harmonization of criminal procedure	819
8	Conclusion	823
9	Addendum: the effect of Brexit	824
	Further reading	825
25	Immigration and asylum	826
1	Introduction	826
2	The legal framework	826
2.1	Prior to the Treaty of Amsterdam	827
2.2	The Treaty of Amsterdam	828
2.3	The Treaty of Lisbon	829

3	Visas and border control	830
3.1	Overview and legal framework	830
3.2	Border controls	830
3.3	Visa policy	832
4	Irregular migration	833
4.1	Overview and legal framework	833
4.2	Adopted legislation	834
5	Legal migration	838
5.1	Overview and legal framework	838
5.2	Legislation	839
5.3	Case law	840
6	Asylum	842
6.1	Overview and legal framework	842
6.2	Qualification for international protection	845
6.3	Reception conditions for asylum seekers	847
6.4	Asylum procedures	847
6.5	Responsibility for applications	847
7	Conclusion	849
	Further reading	849
26	Brexit: the Legal Dimension	850
1	Introduction	850
2	Withdrawing from the EU pre-Lisbon	850
2.1	Public international law	850
2.2	The European Union	853
3	Article 50 TEU: the decision to withdraw	855
3.1	Must Article 50 be used to withdraw?	855
3.2	'Constitutional requirements'	856
3.3	Notifying the decision	859
3.4	Can notification be withdrawn?	860
4	Article 50: withdrawal negotiations	862
4.1	The Article 50 process	862
4.2	Extending membership	866
4.3	The withdrawal agreement	867
5	After Brexit	871
6	Conclusion	874
	Further reading	874
	Index	875