

Contents

Foreword by Michael Carroll	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
Introduction
1. 'Good enough' supervision and the challenges of our time	1
Part I
The supervisee's perspective	15
2. The seven capacities of a reflective practitioner	17
3. Becoming and being an effective supervisee	34
Part II
The supervisor's perspective and the process of supervision	45
4. Becoming and being an effective supervisor	47
5. Maps and models of supervision	66
6. The Seven-Eyed model of supervision	85
7. Working with difference: Transcultural supervision	115
8. Ethical and legal issues: Facing challenging and complex situations in supervision	134
9. Supervisor training and development	157
Part III
Group, peer-group and team supervision	181
10. Group and peer-group supervision	183
11. Supervising in teams and team development	201

Part IV

Supervision in organisations 219

12. Towards an organisational learning culture 221

13. Developing supervision policy and practice in organisations 235

Part V

Development of supervision 245

14. Development of supervision across professions 247

15. What have we learned about supervision? A review of the research evidence 264

Conclusion

16. Working with an open mind and open heart 280

References 287

Index 311