

BRIEF CONTENTS

Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xxi
About the Editors	xxiii

PART I • EVALUATION TO SUPPORT CHANGE: GUIDING NOTIONS AND PRINCIPLES

CHAPTER 1 • Evaluative Research: Key Concepts and Applications in Facilitating Change	2
--	----------

James R. Cook and Ryan P. Kilmer

CHAPTER 2 • Program Evaluation: Promises and Pitfalls	22
--	-----------

Ryan P. Kilmer and James R. Cook

CHAPTER 3 • Setting the Stage: A Partnership Approach to Evaluation	38
--	-----------

Ryan P. Kilmer, James R. Cook, and Laura Marie Armstrong

CHAPTER 4 • Cultural Sensitivity and Responsiveness in Evaluation	56
--	-----------

Cindy A. Crusto, Diane Purvin, Steven Hoffler, Michael Awad, and Osman Özturgut

CHAPTER 5 • Ethical Considerations	81
---	-----------

Michael Morris

CHAPTER 6 • Evaluating Program Effectiveness: Connecting Process and Outcomes	103
--	------------

James R. Cook and Ryan P. Kilmer

PART II • EVALUATION IN PRACTICE: SELECTED STRATEGIES, METHODS, AND APPLICATIONS

CHAPTER 7 • Evaluation Capacity Building: A Partnership Approach for Program Improvement and Social Change	124
---	------------

Yolanda Suarez-Balcazar and Tina Taylor-Ritzler

CHAPTER 8 • Empowerment Evaluation	141
Pamela S. Imm, Mary Brolin, Janice B. Yost, and Opal R. Stone
CHAPTER 9 • Surveying the Landscape: Using Geographic Information Systems to Evaluate Community Programs and Facilitate Change	158
Greg Townley
CHAPTER 10 • Qualitative Evaluation in Community Partnership	177
Andrew D. Case and Joy S. Kaufman
CHAPTER 11 • Network Analysis in Evaluation Research	196
Jennifer Watling Neal and Zachary P. Neal
CHAPTER 12 • Using Cost-Benefit and Cost-Effectiveness Analyses in the Community Context	214
Sarah L. Pettijohn and Joanne G. Carman
PART III • EVALUATION IN ACTION: SPECIAL TOPICS AND CONTEXTS
CHAPTER 13 • Investing in Nonprofit Development Through Evaluation Capacity and Strategic Partnerships: A Four-Tiered Model	237
Katherine Strater Hogan, Virginia Covill, and Ryan P. Kilmer
CHAPTER 14 • Community–University Partnerships to Promote Change	268
Lindsay G. Messinger, Ryan P. Kilmer, and James R. Cook
CHAPTER 15 • Data-Driven Advocacy and Advocacy Evaluation	288
Melissa Strompolis, Megan Branham, and Whitney Tucker
CHAPTER 16 • Using Evaluation to Promote Improvements in Health Service Settings	307
Victoria C. Scott, Jonathan P. Scaccia, and Kassy Alia Ray
CHAPTER 17 • Creating Collaborative Partnerships Through Participatory Evaluation to Shape Public Policy	331
Rebecca Campbell, Jessica Shaw, Hannah Feeney, and Debi Cain
CHAPTER 18 • Epilogue	349
Ryan P. Kilmer and James R. Cook
Glossary	353
Index	359
About the Contributors	368

DETAILED CONTENTS

Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xxi
About the Editors	xxiii

PART I • EVALUATION TO SUPPORT CHANGE: GUIDING NOTIONS AND PRINCIPLES

CHAPTER 1 • Evaluative Research: Key Concepts and Applications in Facilitating Change 2

James R. Cook and Ryan P. Kilmer

Learning Objectives	2
Definitions: Evaluation Versus Research	4
Initial Steps in the Development of an Evaluation	6
The Importance of Transparent Values in Evaluation	18
Further Reading	19
Key Concepts	20
Questions for Reflection	20
References	21

CHAPTER 2 • Program Evaluation: Promises and Pitfalls 22

Ryan P. Kilmer and James R. Cook

Learning Objectives	22
Roles and Benefits of Evaluation: What Is the Rationale for Conducting Evaluations?	22
What Are Barriers to Evaluation? What About When This Does Not Go Well?	27
Why Don't Evaluation Data Get Used?	29
What You Can Do	32
Closing Thoughts	34
Further Reading	34
Key Concepts	35
Questions for Reflection	35
References	36

CHAPTER 3 • Setting the Stage: A Partnership Approach to Evaluation 38

Ryan P. Kilmer, James R. Cook, and Laura Marie Armstrong

Learning Objectives	38
---------------------	----

An Evaluation Partnership in Action: A Multiyear Partnership to Benefit an Early Childhood Education Program	42
Partnership Characteristics, Guiding Notions, and Strategies	48
Further Reading	52
Key Concepts	52
Questions for Reflection	52
References	53
CHAPTER 4 • Cultural Sensitivity and Responsiveness in Evaluation	56
Cindy A. Crusto, Diane Purvin, Steven Hoffler, Michael Awad, and Osman Özturgut
Learning Objectives	56
Culture and Context in Evaluation: An Organizing Framework	57
The Role of Culture and Cultural Competence in Quality Evaluation	58
Why Cultural Competence in Evaluation Is Important	59
Essential Practices for Cultural Competence	61
Case Example Analysis	69
Ethics, Validity, and Theory	69
Essential Practices for Cultural Competence	72
Set of Actions	75
Further Reading	77
Key Concepts	77
Questions for Reflection	78
References	78
CHAPTER 5 • Ethical Considerations	81
Michael Morris
Learning Objectives	81
Setting the Stage	81
Applying the Guiding Principles	82
Systematic Inquiry	82
Competence	83
Integrity	85
Respect for People	87
Common Good and Equity	88
Analysis of the Young Scholars Program Case	92
The YSP Case and the Guiding Principles: A Summary	95
Systematic Inquiry	95
Competence	95
Integrity	95
Respect for People	95
Common Good and Equity	96
Doing the Right Thing	96
Know the Guiding Principles, Program Evaluation Standards, and CES Ethics Statement	96

Stay Abreast of the Literature on Evaluation Ethics	97
Maximize the Value of the Entry/Contracting Stage	97
Consult With Colleagues	98
Know Thyself	98
Conclusion	98
Further Reading	99
Key Concepts	99
Questions for Reflection	100
References	100

CHAPTER 6 • Evaluating Program Effectiveness: Connecting Process and Outcomes 103

James R. Cook and Ryan P. Kilmer

Learning Objectives	103
Data Management Systems	104
Does the Desired Change Occur?	109
How Well Is the Program Being Implemented?	111
Can We Rule Out Plausible Alternative Explanations and Thereby Infer Causation?	114
Individual Factors	115
Contextual and Measurement Factors	117
Level and Type of Involvement in the Program by Participants	118
Critical Challenges to Consider	119
Further Reading	120
Key Concepts	121
Questions for Reflection	121
References	122

PART II • EVALUATION IN PRACTICE: SELECTED STRATEGIES, METHODS, AND APPLICATIONS

CHAPTER 7 • Evaluation Capacity Building: A Partnership Approach for Program Improvement and Social Change 124

Yolanda Suarez-Balcazar and Tina Taylor-Ritzler

Learning Objectives	124
Scenario	124
Background	124
What Is Evaluation Capacity?	125
Approaches and Strategies for Building Evaluation Capacity	127
Building Partnerships That Foster Evaluation-Learning Communities	134
Conclusion	137
Further Reading	137
Key Concepts	138
Questions for Reflection	138
References	138

CHAPTER 8 • Empowerment Evaluation	141
Pamela S. Imm, Mary Brolin, Janice B. Yost, and Opal R. Stone
Learning Objectives	141
Brief Overview of Empowerment Evaluation	142
Defining and Operationalizing Empowerment Evaluation	142
Principles of Empowerment Evaluation	144
Evaluators as Partners to Support Systems Change	145
Deciding to Work With an Empowerment Evaluator	154
Considerations for the Novice Evaluator	154
Further Reading	155
Key Concepts	156
Questions for Reflection	156
References	157
CHAPTER 9 • Surveying the Landscape: Using Geographic Information Systems to Evaluate Community Programs and Facilitate Change	158
Greg Townley
Learning Objectives	158
Geographic Information Systems Overview	158
Creating Visual Maps to Evaluate Program Context and Performance	159
Using Participatory Mapping to Engage Diverse Stakeholders in Evaluation	164
Creating Activity Spaces to Effect Individual and Organizational Change	168
Using GIS Activity Spaces to Illustrate the Activity Patterns of Youth Experiencing Homelessness	169
Key Issues, Challenges, and Questions	170
Accessing GIS Software and Geospatial Data	170
Visually Representing Change	171
Generalizability to Other Settings	171
Protecting Privacy	172
Conclusion	172
Further Reading	173
Key Concepts	173
Questions for Reflection	174
References	174
CHAPTER 10 • Qualitative Evaluation in Community Partnership	177
Andrew D. Case and Joy S. Kaufman
Learning Objectives	177
Defining Qualitative Inquiry	177
The Ontological and Epistemological Basis of Qualitative Inquiry	179
Methodologies in Qualitative Inquiry	179
A Note on Mixed Methods Evaluation	181
Methods of Qualitative Inquiry	181
Designing Qualitative Evaluations	183
Lessons Learned: Considerations for Qualitative Evaluation in Community Contexts	190

Further Reading	192
Key Concepts	192
Questions for Reflection	192
References	193

CHAPTER 11 • Network Analysis in Evaluation Research 196

Jennifer Watling Neal and Zachary P. Neal

Learning Objectives	196
Designing Evaluation Research That Uses Network Analysis	197
Defining the Network	197
Measuring and Analyzing the Network	199
Network Analysis in Evaluation	201
Process Evaluation and Network Analysis	202
Impact Evaluation and Network Analysis	203
Participatory or Partnership-Oriented Approaches to Evaluation and Network Analysis	204
Lessons Learned From the Links to Learning Process Evaluation	207
Conclusion	209
Further Reading	209
Key Concepts	210
Questions for Reflection	210
References	210

CHAPTER 12 • Using Cost-Benefit and Cost-Effectiveness Analyses in the Community Context 214

Sarah L. Pettijohn and Joanne G. Carman

Learning Objectives	214
Understanding Cost Analysis	214
Partnership Approaches to Cost Analysis	218
Conducting a Cost Analysis in Partnership	218
Connecting Cost Analysis and Evaluations	226
Cost-Inclusive Evaluation: Challenges and Recommendations	231
Conclusion	232
Further Reading	233
Key Concepts	233
Questions for Reflection	234
References	234

PART III • EVALUATION IN ACTION: SPECIAL TOPICS AND CONTEXTS

CHAPTER 13 • Investing in Nonprofit Development Through Evaluation Capacity and Strategic Partnerships: A Four-Tiered Model 237

Katherine Strater Hogan, Virginia Covill, and Ryan P. Kilmer

Learning Objectives	237
The Nonprofit Accountability Movement	238

Nonprofit Evolution and Development	241
The Nonprofit Ecological System	241
Internal and Partner Evaluators	242
A Four-Tier Model of Nonprofit Evaluation	243
Tier I—Processes and Procedures	245
Tier I: Goals and Evaluation Questions	245
Tier I: Tools, Techniques, and Implementation	246
Tier I: The Role of Partnership	247
Tier I: Organizational Impact	247
Tier II: Outcomes and Impact	249
Tier II: Goals and Evaluation Questions	249
Tier II: Tools, Techniques, and Implementation	250
Tier II: The Role of Partnership	251
Tier II: Organizational Impact	252
Tier III: Models and Infrastructure	253
Tier III: Goals and Evaluation Questions	253
Tier III: Tools, Techniques, and Implementation	254
Tier III: The Role of Partnership	254
Tier III: Organizational Impact	255
Tier IV: Community Research and Expertise	257
Tier IV: Goals and Evaluation Questions	258
Tier IV: Tools, Techniques, and Implementation	258
Tier IV: The Role of Partnership	259
Tier IV: Organizational Impact	259
Conclusion: Issues, Challenges, and Recommendations	261
Further Reading	263
Key Concepts	263
Questions for Reflection	265
References	265

CHAPTER 14 • Community–University Partnerships to Promote Change 268

Lindsay G. Messinger, Ryan P. Kilmer, and James R. Cook

Learning Objectives	268
Community–University Partnerships: Key Models and Concepts	269
Community–University Partnerships in Action	271
Recommendations for Successful CU Partnerships	277
1. Build Relationships to Help Develop Projects Collaboratively	277
2. Engage in Regular, Direct Communication	280
3. Foster Shared Learning	281
4. Remember That Community Organization Leadership and Staff Already Have Full-Time Jobs With Regular Responsibilities	282
5. Use Dissemination and Communication Strategies and Approaches That Support and Influence Decision-Making	282
Conclusions	283

Further Reading	283
Key Concepts	284
Questions for Reflection	284
References	284

CHAPTER 15 • Data-Driven Advocacy and Advocacy Evaluation 288

Melissa Strompolis, Megan Branham, and Whitney Tucker

Learning Objectives	288
Understanding Advocacy	288
Using Data to Inform Advocacy Efforts	289
Using Communication Theory to Frame Advocacy Messaging	292
Evaluating Advocacy Efforts	296
Challenges and Barriers to Data-Driven Advocacy and Advocacy Evaluation	300
Conclusion	302
Further Reading	302
Key Concepts	303
Questions for Reflection	303
References	304

CHAPTER 16 • Using Evaluation to Promote Improvements in Health Service Settings 307

Victoria C. Scott, Jonathan P. Scaccia, and Kassy Alia Ray

Learning Objectives	307
Health Service Settings	308
Common Categories for Evaluation in Health Service Contexts	310
Promoting Accountability in Health Service Settings	312
Our Guiding Principles and Values for Evaluation	312
The Inquiry–Observation–Reflection Framework	316
Health Service Evaluation for Improvement in Practice	317
Conclusions, Applications, and Reflections	324
Promoting Joint Accountability Through Stakeholder Engagement	324
Using Mixed Methods to Reflect System Complexity	325
Fostering Improvement Through the Use of Evaluation	326
Final Thoughts	326
Acknowledgments	326
Further Reading	327
Key Concepts	327
Questions for Reflection	328
References	328

CHAPTER 17 • Creating Collaborative Partnerships Through Participatory Evaluation to Shape Public Policy 331

Rebecca Campbell, Jessica Shaw, Hannah Feeney, and Debi Cain

Learning Objectives	331
Participatory Evaluation in a Policy Context	332
Practical Participatory Evaluation in Action: Addressing the Criminal Justice System Response to Sexual Assault	334

Developing a Collaborative Partnership	334
Using Research and Evaluation to Develop a Plan for Testing Rape Kits	336
Using Research and Evaluation to Identify Problematic Practices in Police Investigations	339
Action	341
Acting on Evaluation Findings: Developing a Plan for Testing All Rape Kits	341
Acting on Evaluation Findings: Improving Police Sexual Assault Case Investigations	342
Further Reading	344
Key Concepts	344
Questions for Reflection	345
References	345
CHAPTER 18 • Epilogue	349
Ryan P. Kilmer and James R. Cook
References	352
Glossary	353
Index	359
About the Contributors	368