

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	x
1 Rethinking Lawyering for the Underrepresented Around the World: An introductory essay Louise G. Trubek and Jeremy Cooper	1
2 Lawyering for the Underrepresented in the Context of Legal, Social, and National Institutions: The case of Japan Setsuo Miyazawa	19
3 Current Issues for Legal Aid in Japan - Reform Perspective Gotaro Ichiki and Tetsuo Ohishi	51
4 Current Reform Efforts in Legal Education and the Delivery of Legal Service in Korea Dae-Kyu Yoon	64
5 Legal Aid in the People's Republic of China: Past, present and future Weidong Ji	93
6 Thammasat Clinical Education and the Delivery of Legal Services: A historical and personal perspective Malee Pruekongsawalee	118
7 Legal Education in Argentina and Chile Stephen Meili	138

8	The Brazilian Bar Association in the Struggle for Human Rights Eliane Botelho Junqueira	158
9	Discussing Legal Ethics with Eastern-European Judges Leny E. De Groot-Van Leeuwen and Wouter T. De Groot	179
10	Transcending Borders: Escaping the confines of gender violence Linda A. Kelly	195
11	Learning from Communities: Lessons from India on clinical method and liberal education Kenneth S. Gallant	222
12	Meaningful Exchange: Collaboration among clinicians and law teachers in India and the United States Jane E. Schukoske	233