

Contents

Foreword by Giles Constable xi

Preface xiii

List of Abbreviations xv

Translator's Note xvii

1. The Beginnings 1

Retreat from the World 1

The Establishment of Monastic Communities 7

The First Monasteries in Europe 13

2. The Benedictine Rule and Its Longevity 24

Benedict as "Textual Trace" 24

The Rule of Saint Benedict 29

The Career of Benedict and His Rule 34

The Second Benedict and the Reform of the Frankish Monasteries 38

3. The Flowering of the Benedictines 50

A New Beginning in Lotharingia 50

Cluny: The Establishment of Monastic Liberty 54

The "Cluniac Church": A Congregation of Monasteries 63

Ordo Cluniacensis 67

Church for the World 72

Monastic Life in Service of King and Nobility,
Pope and Bishop 80

4. Return to the Desert 89

The New Hermits 89

- To Live by One's Own Law 94
- Charismatic Preaching and Religious Movements 109
- A Return to the Institutions of the Church 120

5. The Regular Canons: The Clergy's
New Self-Understanding 125

- 6. The Cistercians: Collegiality Instead of Hierarchy 136
- Robert's Path from Molesme to Cîteaux and Back 136
 - The Measure of the Pure Rule 141
 - The Charter of Charity and the Invention of the "Order" 146

- 7. The Success of the Cistercian Model 158
- From the Premonstratensians to the Gilbertines
and the Carthusians 158
 - Cluny, Knights, and Hospitals: The Reform of Older Congregations and the Creation of New "Functional" Orders 166

8. Diversity and Competition 180

- 9. New Concepts of Belief 186
- The Search for Religious Identity 186
 - Beguines and Humiliati: A New Lay Piety 193
 - "Holy Preachers" and "Lesser Brothers" 200

10. The Franciscans: A Mendicant Order with the Whole World as Its Monastery 206

- Francis of Assisi and His Community 206
- The Legacy of Francis 216
- Clare of Assisi 225

11. The Dominicans: Holy Preaching and Pastoral Care 232

- Dominic and the Building of a New Order 232
- Rationality and Constitution in the Service of the Salvation of Souls 239

12. Transformations of Eremitical Life 249

- The Carmelites: From the Mountain into the Cities 250
- The Augustinian Hermits 256

13. A New Chapter in the Story of the Vita Religiosa	263
The Three Ages of Salvation History	263
Eremitical Congregations and the Work of Peter of Morrone	267
Devotio Moderna	276
The Revelations of Birgitta	280
14. Mendicant Orders in Conflict: Struggles over Poverty and Observance	286
15. Reformers and Reforms at the End of the Middle Ages	298
Reform from Above: Pope Benedict XII	298
Reform from Below: The Rise of the Observants	306
16. A Look Back	313
17. Fundamental Structures of the Vita Religiosa in the Middle Ages	316
The Individual and the Community	318
The Monastery and the Law	332
Institutional Forms: Establishment and Preservation	342
Constructing Particular Pasts	349
Cloister and World	353
Temporalia	359
On the Search for God toward Knowledge of the World	364
Chronology	373
Map	382
Bibliography	384
Image Credits	432
Index of People and Places	433
Index of Monasteries, Congregations, and Orders	440