

THE CONTENTS

Introduction	xi
CHAPTER ONE. The Historical Context
1. The international situation	1
2. Life in Arabia	3
3. Muḥammad's career	9
Annex A. Chronology of Muḥammad's career	15
Annex B. Ḥanīf	16
CHAPTER TWO. Muḥammad's Prophetic Experience
1. Criticisms of the claim to prophethood	17
2. Qur'ānic descriptions of revelation and prophethood	18
3. The conception of the prophetic function	25
4. The writing down of the Qur'ān	30
CHAPTER THREE. The History of the Text
1. The 'collection' of the Qur'ān	40
2. The pre-'Uthmānic codices	44
3. The writing of the Qur'ān and early textual studies	47
4. The authenticity and completeness of the Qur'ān	50
CHAPTER FOUR. The External Form of the Qur'ān
1. Its name and liturgical divisions	57
2. The suras and verses	57
3. The mysterious letters	61
4. The dramatic form	65
CHAPTER FIVE. Features of Qur'ānic Style
1. Rhymes and strophes	69
2. Various didactic forms	75
3. The language of the Qur'ān	82
CHAPTER SIX. The Shaping of the Qur'ān
1. The theory of abrogation and the possibility of revision	86
2. Evidences of revision and alteration	89
3. Bell's hypothesis of written documents	101

CONTENTS

CHAPTER SEVEN. The Chronology of the Qur'ān
1. Traditional Islamic views of dating	108
2. European theories of dating	109
3. The sequence of ideas as a guide to chronology	114
CHAPTER EIGHT. The Names of the Revealed Message
1. Signs	121
2. Stories of punishment; al-mathānī	127
3. The Qur'ān	135
4. The Book	141
5. Other names	144
CHAPTER NINE. The Doctrines of the Qur'ān
1. The doctrine of God	148
2. Other spiritual beings	153
3. Prophethood; other religions	156
4. The doctrine of the Last Judgement	158
5. Regulations for the life of the community	162
CHAPTER TEN. Muslim Scholarship and the Qur'ān
1. Interpretation and exegesis	167
2. The theologians	170
CHAPTER ELEVEN. The Qur'ān and Occidental Scholarship
1. Translations and studies	173
2. Problems facing the non-Muslim scholar	181
Abbreviations	187
Notes	189
Table for converting verse-numbers	202
Table of suras with chronology, etc.	205
Index to the Qur'ān	215
Index to the Introduction	241