

Contents

Foreword	Russell P. Hall	viii
Acknowledgment		ix
Introduction		x

I Facial cosmetic dermatology

Introduction	1
1. Acne and cosmetics	3
2. Rosacea and cosmetics	12
3. Facial moisturizers and eczema	18
4. Sensitive skin and contact dermatitis	27
5. Aging skin and cosmeceuticals	34
6. Facial scarring and camouflaging	47
7. Ethnic skin and pigmentation	52
8. Male skin care	57
9. Facial photoprotection	60
10. Lip cosmetic considerations	68
11. Eyes	76
12. Postsurgical cosmetics	91
13. Facial adornment	95
14. Troubleshooting problematic ingredients	103
Summary	112

II Cosmetics in dermatology of the body

Introduction	113
15. Personal hygiene, cleansers, and xerosis	115
16. Body xerosis and moisturization	121
17. Hand dermatitis and moisturization	130
18. Hyperhidrosis and antiperspirants	132
19. Fragrances, dermatitis, and vasomotor rhinitis	137
20. Body photoprotection	141
21. Sunless tanning creams	148
22. Cellulite	150
23. Stretch marks	154

III Hair

Introduction	156
24. Shampoos for hair health	158
25. Hair conditioners	164

26. Hair styling aids	169
27. Hair styling with prostheses	176
28. Hair permanent waving	183
29. Hair straightening	190
30. Hair dyeing	198
31. Folliculitis and shaving	209
32. Hair removal	213
33. Hair and photoprotection	221
34. Alopecia and cosmetic considerations	225
35. Seborrheic dermatitis	233
36. Psoriasis and hair	236
37. Aging hair issues	239
38. Damaged hair issues	242

IV Nail

Introduction	248
39. A problem-oriented approach to fingernail issues	249
40. Understanding and treating brittle nails	262
41. Cosmetics in nail disease	265
42. Children and nail cosmetic issues	268
43. Toenails and cosmetic issues	269
Summary	272

Index	275
-------	-----