Contents

Preface xv

Acknowledgments xix

ONE Eight Trends Shaping Practice 1

1. Increasingly Frail Elders Living at Home
2. Shifting Paradigms: From Protection to Empowerment
3. Heightened Understanding of Victims
4. The Circle Widens: The Burgeoning Abuse Prevention Network
5. The Changing Role of APS
6. The "Criminalization" of Elder Abuse
7. Focus on Forensics
8. Going Global: International Initiatives to Prevent Elder Abuse

TWO Defining Elder Abuse: The Controversies 19

Controversies in Defining Elder Abuse
- The Disability Requirement
- The "Special Relationship" Requirement
- Intentionality
- Focusing on Conduct or Its Impact
- Frequency and Severity

What the Experts Say

Challenges in Defining Specific Forms of Abuse
- Financial Abuse
- Physical Abuse

Elder Sexual Abuse
Emotional Abuse
Neglect
Self-Neglect
Abandonment
Other

THREE Service Models from Which We Have Drawn 35

Introduction
The Adult Protective Services (APS) Model
The Domestic Violence Prevention Model
The Public Health Model
The Victim Advocacy Model
The Restorative Justice Model
Neutralization Theor
The Family Caregiver Support Model
The Family Preservation Model

FOUR Factors Influencing Intervention Needs 75

Victim Considerations
Victims' Mental Capacity and Ability to Consent
Victim Risk Factors
Victims' Resources and Support Systems

Perpetrator Considerations
Perpetrator Characteristics that Affect Service Needs
Perpetrators' Reasons or Motives for Abusing
Abusers' Willingness and Ability to Change
Abusers' Access and Level of Threat to Victims and Their Assets

Urgency of the Situation

Ethical Considerations
Autonomy and Self-Determination
Least Restrictive Alternatives
Other Ethical Principles
Competing and Conflicting Principles

Cultural Factors Affecting Service Needs
Cultural Factors Affecting Risk
Attitudes about Abuse
Obstacles to Accessing Services
Cultural Considerations Affecting Practice

FIVE Preventing and Treating Elder Abuse 101

Assessing Victims' Service Needs

Services and Interventions for Victims
- Maximizing Independence
- Resolving Crises
- Emergency Services
- Ensuring Victim Safety
- Healing, Empowerment, and Support
- Preserving, Protecting, and Recovering Assets
- Ensuring Justice

Interventions for Perpetrators and Those at Risk for Abusing
- Counseling for Perpetrators
- Domestic Violence Treatment
- Programs for Caregivers

SIX What Agencies, The Justice System, and Communities Can Do 145

What Agencies Can Do
- General
- Agency-Specific Practices
  - APS Programs
  - Domestic Violence Programs
  - Health Care Facilities
  - Providers of Home Health Care
  - Legal Service Providers
  - Dementia Care Programs

What the Justice System Can Do
- Law Enforcement
- Prosecutors' Offices
- Victim Assistance Programs
- Forensics Centers
- Elder Justice Centers
- Improving Court Access
  - Elder Courts
  - Self-Help Clinics
- Guardianship Monitoring

What Communities Can Do
- Multidisciplinary Teams
- Coalitions and Councils
- Volunteer Programs

What Community Institutions Can Do
- Financial Institutions
- Academic Institutions
- Churches

SEVEN What States and Tribes Are Doing 173

What States Are Doing
- Ensuring that Professionals Report and Respond Appropriately
- Ensuring Justice
- Ensuring a Comprehensive, Coordinated Service Response
- Protecting Elders with Diminished Capacity and Those at Risk for Undue Influence
- Special Challenges

What Tribes Are Doing
- Improving Coordination
- Ensuring Justice
- Training Professionals
- Meeting the Demand for Services

EIGHT Community Outreach 203

Goals of Outreach

The Impact of Outreach

Local, State, National, Tribal, and International Campaigns
- Local Outreach Campaigns
- State Outreach Campaigns
- National Outreach Campaigns
- Tribal Outreach Campaigns
- An International Campaign

NINE Responding to Challenges 217

Defining Abuse

Responding to a Multicultural Society

Defining Capacity for Specific Tasks

Service Needs

Meeting the Challenge of "Consumer Choice"

Research Challenges and Needs
- Evaluating the Impact of Services
- Assessing the Impact of Abuse Definitions on Practice
- The Economic Costs of Elder Abuse
- Shedding Light on "Help-Seeking"
- Predicting Helpers' Risk of Abusing

Professional Training Needs

Challenges to Coordination and Collaboration

Ethical Challenges

TEN Moving Forward 241

Guiding Principles
- A Holistic Response
- A Continuum of Service Options
- Addressing Cultural Differences
- A Public Health Perspective
- Long-Term Services

An Approach: Case Management

An Agenda
- Promoting Research
- Training
- Filling Service Gaps
- Advocacy

References 263