

CONTENTS

ABBREVIATIONS	ix
INTRODUCTION	1
I. AUSTIN'S THEORY OF LEGAL SYSTEM	5
1. Sovereignty	6
2. Existence Criteria	11
3. An Identity Criterion	18
4. The Structure of a Legal System	22
II. AUSTIN'S THEORY: CRITICISM	27
1. The Illimitability of Sovereignty	27
2. On Personal Obedience	33
3. The Unity of Sovereignty	35
4. On Legislation	38
5. On Independence	41
III. ELEMENTS OF A THEORY OF NORMS	44
1. Normative Statements	45
2. The Elements of a Norm	50
A. Bentham's Account of the Structure of a Norm	50
B. Kelsen on the Structure of a Norm	59
3. The Existence of Norms	60
A. Derivative Creation-Conditions	61
B. Derivative Termination-Conditions	62
C. Original Existence-Conditions	64
IV. ON THE INDIVIDUATION OF LAWS	70
1. The Problem of Individuation	70
2. Kelsen's Approach to the Individuation of Laws	77
3. Kelsen versus Bentham — a Comparison	85
V. KELSEN'S THEORY OF LEGAL SYSTEM	93
1. The Existence of a Legal System	93
2. The Criterion of Identity	95
3. The Criterion of Identity — the Role of the Basic Norm	100
4. The Criterion of Identity — the Chain of Validity	105

5. The Structure of a Legal System	109
A. Two Alternative Principles of Individuation	110
B. The Possibility of Projecting One Classification onto the Other	111
C. The Primacy of the Static Principle	112
6. On Independent Norms	114
 VI. LEGAL SYSTEMS AS SYSTEMS OF NORMS	121
1. Imperative Norms	122
2. The Basic Norm and Dynamic Justification	128
3. The Structure of a System and the Individuation of its Laws	140
A. Limiting Requirements	142
B. Guiding Requirements	143
4. Duty-Imposing Laws	147
5. Power-Confering Laws	156
A. Note on Obedience Laws	166
 VII. LEGAL SYSTEMS AS SYSTEMS OF LAWS	168
1. On the Normativity of the Law	168
2. On Permissions	170
3. On Laws Instituting Rights	175
4. Genetic and Operative Structure	183
A. Note on Coercive Sanctions	185
 VIII. THE IDENTITY OF LEGAL SYSTEMS	187
1. The Identity of Non-momentary Legal Systems	187
2. Identity and Membership in Momentary Legal Systems	189
3. On the Rule of Recognition	197
A. Note on Laws and Paper Laws	201
 IX. ON THE EXISTENCE OF LEGAL SYSTEMS	203
1. On the Principle of Efficacy	203
2. Some Further Suggestions	205
 POSTSCRIPT: SOURCES, NORMATIVITY, AND INDIVIDUATION	209
 BIBLIOGRAPHY	239
 INDEX	243