

Contents

I. Positions

- p9 1. Being Agitated—
Agitated Being
Art and Activism in Times of Perennial Protest

II. The Stage, the Street, and the Institution

- p51 2. Staging the Political (Counter)publics and the Theatricality of Acting
- p75 3. Dancing Politics
Political Reflections on Choreography, Dance, and Protest

- p101 4. Art, Space, and the Public Sphere(s)
On Public Art, Urbanism, and Political Theory
- p143 5. The Curatorial Function
Organizing the Ex/position
- p155 6. The Globalization of Art and the “Biennials of Resistance”
A History of the Biennials from the Periphery
- p175 Time Loops
A Postscript on
Pre-enactments