

Contents

Preface	vii
Angelo Cardinal Scola
Introduction	ix
Antonio López
PART I: PERCEIVING OTHERNESS, UNDERSTANDING DIFFERENCE
Recognition and Culture: Toward a Model of Intercultural Subjectivities	3
Francesco Botturi
The Encounter and Emergence of Human Nature	14
Carmine Di Martino
We Need a "Relational Reason" for Different Cultures to Meet and Build a Common World	31
Pierpaolo Donati
The Link between "Fundamentalism" and "Relativism"	44
Costantino Esposito
Retrieval of Otherness in a Technological Culture	57
Antonio López

CONTENTS

PART II: ORDERING SOCIAL LIFE

- Human Rights and Cultural Plurality: A Possible Path 87

Marta Cartabia

- Multiculturalism and Ethically Controversial Questions:
What Form Should Regulation Take? 100

Lorenza Violini

- The Abraham Model of Multicultural Integration: Ger and Toshav 112

Joseph H. H. Weiler

PART III: THE RECOGNITION OF GOD AS THE ULTIMATE GROUND

- Church, Modernity, and Multiculturalism: An Extemporaneous
Reflection 121

Francisco Javier Martínez Fernández

- Interculturality and Christian Mission in Today's Society 132

Massimo Borghesi

- War and the American Difference: A Theological Assessment 152

Stanley Hauerwas

- Multiculturalism in Britain: The Case of the Recent Debate over Sharia 163

John Milbank

- Knowing the Truth through Witness: The Christian Faith
in the Context of Interreligious Dialogue 176

Javier Prades

- Multiculturalism and Civil Community inside the Liberal State:
Truth and (Religious) Freedom 190

David L. Schindler

- Contributors 203

- Index of Persons 205