

Contents

Table of Abbreviations	9
A. The changing determination of the product market in competition law.....	13
I. The function of market determination	13
II. The deficits of the concept of demand-side substitutability	16
1.) Empirical findings.....	16
2.) Analysis of the practice	23
B. History of dogmas.....	29
I. The product market in modern competition theory	29
II. Demand-side substitutability as decisive criterion in the classical concept of demand-side substitutability	32
III. Extending the consumer perspective by the competition perspective in the concept of supply-side substitutability	37
1.) Including the market shares of potential competitors that can switch production within a short time	41
2.) Including the competitive constraints by taking into account the undertakings' marketing plans	45
C. Determining the relevant market according to the marketing plan - Examples	54
D. Summary	63