

Contents

List of Figures vi

List of Tables vii

Notes on Contributors viii

Preface xi

Foreword Jim Crawley xii

Acknowledgements xiii

List of Abbreviations xiv

- 1 Introduction and Background to the Education and Training Sector Denise Robinson 1
- 2 Why We Must Never Become Classroom Managers Pete Bennett 15
- 3 Reflections on the Language of Disruption, Learning and Conflict Merv Lebor 27
- 4 A Critique of Common Current Approaches to Behaviour Management Sandra Rennie 41
- 5 Affirmative Mental Health Leadership Lou Mycroft 55
- 6 Using Research-Informed Teaching to Support Behaviour Management in FE David Powell 71
- 7 How to Improvise Decisions in the Face of Disorder Sandra Rennie 87
- 8 Reflective Practice, Restorative Practice and Trust in Behaviour Management Elizabeth Newton and Denise Robinson 101
- 9 Ethos and Culture across the Compulsory and Post-Compulsory Sectors and Its Impact on Behaviour Management Joanne Irving-Walton 115
- 10 The Use of Professional Standards for Teachers and Trainers in Promoting Positive Behaviour Joe Wearing 131

Index 144