

Contents

List of illustrations	xi
List of contributors	xii
Foreword: It's not right! How children and young people, impacted by parental imprisonment, experience child rights	xvi
Acknowledgements	xxiii
List of abbreviations	xxiv
 1 Introduction	 1
AISLING PARKES AND FIONA DONSON
 SECTION 1
Voices	5
 2 'I just used to say "I haven't got a mum" because that was the best thing for me to say': Exploring the lived experience of children with parents in prison	 7
BEN RAIKES
 3 Living with the pains of confinement: The experiences of children with parents in prison in Northern Ireland	 22
UNA CONVERY AND LINDA MOORE
 4 Making children visible: Children's rights and their role in parent-child contact within the prison system	 44
FIONA DONSON AND AISLING PARKES

SECTION 2

Policy

67

- 5 Children first: Putting the rights of children visiting prisons at the heart of policy and practice

69

MARIE HUTTON

- 6 Starting life in prison: Reflections on the English and Irish contexts regarding pregnancy, birth, babies and new mothers in prison, through a children's rights lens

87

SINEAD O'MALLEY, LUCY BALDWIN AND LAURA ABBOTT

- 7 Framing and children's rights in Europe: Exploring policy processes for children with an incarcerated parent

113

LIZ AYRE

SECTION 3

Law

133

- 8 Prisons, families and human rights: From prisoners' rights to the rights of prisoners' children

135

PETER SCHARFF SMITH AND EMMA VILLMAN

- 9 Re-imagining the Paramountcy Principle

158

JUSTICE ALBIE SACHS

- 10 Sentencing mothers: The rights of the child

168

RONA EPSTEIN

- 11 Every child matters?: Global perspectives on incarcerated mothers and their children

187

HELEN CODD

Index

205