

Contents

Foreword, David B. Grusky and Marta Tienda	ix
Preface	xi

PART ONE INTRODUCTION

1 Changes in the Process of Family Formation and Women's Growing Economic Independence: A Comparison of Nine Countries, Hans-Peter Blossfeld	3
---	---

PART TWO COUNTRY-SPECIFIC STUDIES ON THE TRENDS IN FAMILY FORMATION AND THE NEW ROLE OF WOMEN

2 Sweden, Britta Hoem	35
3 West Germany, Hans-Peter Blossfeld and Götz Rohwer	56
4 France, Henri Leridon and Laurent Toulemon	77
5 The Netherlands, Jenny de Jong Gierveld and Aart C. Liefbroer	102
6 Great Britain, Kathleen E. Kiernan and Éva Lelièvre	126
7 United States of America, Valerie Kincade Oppenheimer, Hans-Peter Blossfeld, and Achim Wackerow	150
8 Italy, Antonella Pinnelli and Alessandra De Rose	174

- 9 Spain, Margarita Delgado 191
- 10 Hungary, Peter Robert and Hans-Peter Blossfeld 211

PART THREE

DISCUSSION OF RESULTS AND CONCLUSIONS

- 11 Women's Education and the Costs and Benefits of Marriage,
Annemette Sørensen 229
- 12 The Role of Women's Economic Independence in Marriage Formation: A Skeptic's Response to Annemette Sørensen's Remarks,
Valerie Kincade Oppenheimer 236

PART FOUR

HOW THE OTHER HALF LIVES

- 13 Education, Work, and Family Patterns of Men:
The Case of West Germany, Johannes Huinink 247
- About the Book* 263
- About the Editor and Contributors* 265