

Contents

Foreword	ix
List of Contributors	xi
Note on Contributions to the Next Volume	xiii

1. Challenges for Company Law	1
Fiona Macmillan Patfield

Introduction	1
The form of company law	3
The corporate model	7
Towards an underlying rationale	11
Who will answer the challenges?	15
Conclusion	20

2. The Response to the Report of the Committee on the Financial Aspects of Corporate Governance	23
Sir Adrian Cadbury

Introduction	23
Formation of the Committee	23
Corporate governance	24
The Code of Best Practice	25
Response to the Report	25
Governance issues	26
Broadening the debate	32
Conclusion	32

3. The Future of the London Stock Exchange	35
Peter Gerrard

Introduction: is there a future?	35
Core functions	35
The legal environment	36

Perspectives on Company Law: 1

Significant influences	37
A "city policeman"	46
Conclusion	47
4. Capital Maintenance	49
W J L Knight
Introduction	49
Sources of capital maintenance law	49
Approach to a definition	51
The modern law	58
Concluding remarks	62
5. The Legal Personality of Associations	63
Harry Rajak
Introduction	63
The creation of corporations—a brief history	64
Theory and fact	68
The conferment of legal personality attributes on unincorporated associations	69
Ignoring the legal personality of incorporated associations	75
Conclusion	83
6. Private Property and Corporate Governance Part I: Defining the Interests	85
Sheldon Leader
A framework	85
The current law	94
Reform	103
Conclusion	112
7. Private Property and Corporate Governance Part II: Content of Directors' Duties and Remedies	115
Janet Dine
The model of company law	115
A solution to the confusion: shareholders' dual rights	118
The single duty	119

Contents

Duty owed to the company	120
The concept of property rights resolves conflict between "duties"	122
The current law on the single duty	123
Ratification—the improper elevation of majority rule	125
The two property rights and their effect on remedies	126
Current remedies for wrongs done to the value of a share	127
The way forward	130
Conclusion	132
 8. Corporate Rescue Procedures—Some Overseas Comparisons	 135
Len Sealy
 Introduction	 135
Survey of other jurisdictions	136
General issues in corporate rescue legislation reform	141
Policy choices for reformers	143
Conclusion	146
 9. Insolvency: Controlling Office Holders' Actions	 149
The Honourable Mrs Justice Arden DBE
 Liquidators	 149
Administrators	155
Nominees	156
Receivers	157
Assessment of the present position	159
 10. Close Corporations and Private Companies in South and Southern Africa	 163
J J Henning
 Introduction	 163
Brief historical background	166
Salient features	169
Relative advantages to companies	178
Review and development	179
Private companies	189
Southern Africa	193
In conclusion	195

11. Reforming Company Law	197
Judith Freedman
Introduction	197
Volume and detail	200
Piecemeal nature of reform	207
Poor drafting	215
Lack of consultation?	217
Inadequate parliamentary process	219
Conclusion	221
 Index	 223