

Table of Contents

List of Editors	v
List of Contributors	vii
Summary of Contents	ix
Preface	xxiii
Acknowledgements	xxv
Part I
Comprehensive Overview	1
Chapter 1
Competition and Regulation of Intellectual Property Rights for the Achievement and Functioning of the Internal Market	3
Giandonato Caggiano
1. Object and European IPR Framework	3
2. The Legal Basis of Competition Policy and IPR Regulation in the Internal Market	5
3. The Framework for Litigation over IPRs and Patents Jurisdiction	7
4. The Framework for Litigation over IPRs and Patents Jurisdiction	9
5. Recent Antitrust Case-Law with Reference to IPRs	12
6. The EU Merger Regulation	15
7. Remedies and Commitments in Merger – Recent Case-Law	17
8. Regulation of Horizontal and Non-horizontal Agreements, Vertical Restraints and Block Exemptions Regulations	18
References	23

Table of Contents

Chapter 2

The Bride and the Groom. On the Intersection between Intellectual Property and Antitrust Law

Gustavo Ghidini

27

1. Introduction	27
2. The Earlier Perspective: Checking the Contractual Exercise of IPRs	30
3. Phase two: Storming the Sanctuary – Commencing from Telecommunications Standards	33
4. The Door is Open – But Not Wide-Open. From Magill to Microsoft	35
5. Does the Exercise of IPRs Confer Market Power Per Se? Checking Each Basic Paradigm	38
5.1. Patents	38
5.2. Copyright	40
5.3. Trademarks	42
6. Intermezzo. In Search of the Historical Roots of the European Approach	43
7. The Technological and Economic Rationale of the European Approach	45
8. Further Points and a Note about the Effects on the Dynamics of Innovation	48
References	50

Chapter 3

Intellectual Property Rights and Merger Control: How to Secure Incentives to Innovate in the Long Run

Andreas Heinemann

53

1. Introduction	53
2. The Notion of Concentration	54
3. The Substantive Assessment of IP-Related Mergers	55
3.1. Starting Point	55
3.2. Relevant Markets	57
3.2.1. Product, Technology and Innovation Markets	57
3.2.2. Substitution of Demand and Supply	58
3.2.3. Consequence	59
3.3. Significant Impediment to Effective Competition (SIEC)	60
3.3.1. Single Market Dominance	60
3.3.1.1. Horizontal Mergers	61
3.3.1.2. Vertical Mergers	63
3.3.1.3. Conglomerate Mergers	64
3.3.2. Collective Market Dominance	66
3.3.3. Unilateral Effects	67

3.3.4. Relationship between Merger Control and Article 82 EC	67
3.3.5. Ancillary Restraints	69
4. Remedies	70
4.1. Divestiture	70
4.2. Access to Key Inputs	71
4.3. Behavioural Commitments	72
5. Outlook	73
References	74

Chapter 4

Oligopoly and the Prisoners' Dilemma: How About Intellectual Property Rights?	77
Mario Franzosi

1. A Personal Remark (Perhaps Two)	77
2. The Prisoners' Dilemma and Oligopoly	78
3. IP Rights and Oligopoly	80
References	81

Part II

IPRs and Standardization	83
---------------------------------	-----------

Chapter 5

Standards under EU Competition Law: The Open Issues	85
Ginevra Bruzzone & Marco Boccaccio

1. Introduction	85
2. The Role of IPRs and Standards in the Market Process	87
3. IPRs and Standards under Antitrust Rules: The Basic Principles	89
3.1. Assessment of Market Power	89
3.2. Assessment of the Allegedly Anticompetitive Agreement or Conduct: Impact on Consumers and Counterfactual Analysis	91
4. Standards and Refusal to Deal	91
4.1. The Two-Markets Requirement	94
4.2. Indispensability and Elimination of Competition	95
4.3. New Products	97
4.4. Objective Justification and Efficiency Defence: Shortcomings of the Split Assessment	100
5. Standards, Hold up and the Role of Competition Law	101
6. Application of Article 101	103
7. Discrimination and Exploitation of Market Power under Article 102	106
References	110

Table of Contents

Chapter 6

The Interplay between Standardization, IPR and Competition Law 113

Ian S. Forrester, QC

1. Standards Are Omnipresent and Important	113
2. Classification of Standards	115
2.1. Classification Regarding the Basic Function of Standards	115
2.2. How Standards May Be Adopted	116
3. Competition Law and Standardization	118
3.1. Distinguishing between Quality and Compatibility Standards	118
3.2. Public Standardization	119
3.3. De Facto Standardization	120
3.4. Informal Standardization	122
4. Formal Standardization and Competition Law	123
4.1. Standardization and Market Power	123
4.2. Cooperation amongst Competitors	127
4.2.1. Traditional Treatment of Standard-Setting Organizations under EC Competition Law	127
4.2.2. Diverging Participants' Interests	128
4.2.3. Patent Ambushes	129
4.2.3.1. The Desirability of Clarity	129
4.2.4. FRAND	131
4.2.5. Ex-ante Pricing Negotiations	133
4.2.6. Enforceability as against Third Parties	134
5. Conclusion	136
References	136

Chapter 7

Case Note: Some Thoughts on the Rambus Case – Patent Ambush on Two Sides of the Ocean 139

Cristoforo Osti

1. The US Case	139
2. A Few Months After, a Few Hours Earlier	143
References	144

Chapter 8

Group Innovation and Patent Pools: The Role of the Courts – The Balance between Competitive and Anticompetitive Effects 147

Gabriella Muscolo

1. Group Innovation and Intellectual Property Rights	147
2. Patent Thicket and Multilateral Agreements: What Is Special about Patent Pools?	149

3. The Antitrust Analysis of Patent-Pooling Agreements: Promoting the Innovation Process or Affecting Competition?	149
4. Patent Pools and Litigation: The Rule-of-Reason Approach	151
References	152

Part III

Sector-Specific Issues 155

Chapter 9

Negotiated Foreclosure and IPRs: Recent Developments 157

Pier Luigi Parcu & Maria Alessandra Rossi

1. Introduction	157
2. 'Negotiated Foreclosure' in the US and the EU: An Overview	159
3. The US Approach	161
3.1. The US Regulatory Framework	162
3.2. The Position of the Federal Trade Commission	164
3.3. The Position of US Courts	165
3.4. The Position of the Department of Justice	166
4. The European Approach	167
5. The Basic Economics of Negotiated Foreclosure through Reverse Payment Settlements	168
6. Policy Implications: Should Europe Allow Negotiated Foreclosure?	173
7. Conclusions	175
References	175

Chapter 10

The EU Pharmaceutical Sector Inquiry. New Forms of Abuse and Article 102 TFEU 177

Mario Siragusa

1. The New Forms of Abuse Identified in the Report	179
1.1. Vexatious Litigation	179
1.2. Misuse of the Patent System	179
1.3. Abuse of Process	180
1.4. Miscellaneous Commercial Conduct	181
2. The New Unilateral Practices and Article 102 TFEU	182
2.1. Existence and Exercise of Intellectual Property Rights	183
2.2. The Legitimate Exercise of Rights Granted by Law	184
2.3. The Relevance of Intention	185
2.4. The Conduct Does Not Take Place on the Market	186
3. Conclusion	187
References	188

Table of Contents

Chapter 11

Industrial Property and Abuse of Dominant Position in the Pharmaceutical Market: Some Thoughts on the AstraZeneca Judgment of the EU General Court

191

Ilaria Ottaviano

1. Introduction	191
2. The Facts of the Case and the Decision of the Court	192
3. Observations on the Judgment	195
Bibliography	200

Chapter 12

Competition Law and Copyright: Observations from the World of Collecting Societies

203

Ingo Brinker

1. Introduction	203
2. Territoriality of Copyright Licences	204
3. Collecting Societies and Competition	205
3.1. Collecting Societies Are Essential for the Functioning of the Market	205
3.1.1. Reduction of Transaction Cost	205
3.1.2. Elimination of Price Competition	206
3.2. Competition for Right Holders versus Competition for Users	207
3.2.1. Competition for Right Holders	207
3.2.2. Competition for Right Users	208
4. Cooperation between Collecting Societies	208
5. The CISAC Dispute	209
5.1. Background to the CISAC Case	209
5.2. Concerted Practice or Mere Parallel Behaviour	210
5.3. Pan-European Licences versus Blanket Licences	210
5.3.1. Expectations of the Commission	210
5.3.2. Reactions of the Societies	211
5.3.3. Analysis	211
6. The Road Ahead: A New Framework for Pan-European Licences	212
6.1. Consistency in the Commission's Demands	212
6.2. Diversity of National Laws on Collective Rights Management	213
6.3. The Need for a Comprehensive Solution	214
7. Conclusion	214
References	215

Chapter 13
New Levels of Protection for Shapes: A Consideration of Three-Dimensional Trademarks and Registered Models	217
Lamberto Liuzzo
References	223
Part IV
General Competition Issues Relevant to the Subject Matter	225
Chapter 14
Single-Firm Conduct: A Discipline in Search of Itself	227
Roberto Pardolesi
1. A Black Hole?	227
2. Radical Divergence?	228
2.1. Exploitative Behaviour: The US Paradoxical Attitude	229
2.2. The European View	231
3. No More Than a Potential Threat	233
4. Anticompetitive Foreclosure as a Tool for Exploitation	233
5. A Logical Short Circuit	236
References	236
Chapter 15
Estimating Damages to Competitors from Exclusionary Practices in Europe: A Review of the Main Issues in the Light of National Courts' Experience	239
Luigi Prosperetti
1. Introduction	239
2. Harm and Damages: An Overview	241
2.1. Behaviour, Abusive Behaviour and Harm	241
2.2. Harm to Competitors	242
2.2.1. Damnum Emergens	242
2.2.2. Loss of Profits	243
2.2.3. Loss of Chance	246
2.2.4. Loss of Reputation	247
2.3. Harm to Consumers	248
3. Estimating Damages: What Do Courts Do	248
3.1. Before and after Methods	249

Table of Contents

3.2. Yardstick Methods	250
3.3. Analytical Methods	254
4. Conclusions	256
References	257

Chapter 16

Intellectual Property and Refusal to Deal: ‘Ad Hoc’ versus ‘Categorical’ Balancing	259
Francesco Denozza

1. The Tension between the Goals of Antitrust Law: The Legal Concept of Balancing	259
2. The Balancing in the Case of a Dominant Firm’s Refusal to Deal	264
3. Balancing in Those Cases Where Goods Are Protected by an Intellectual Property Right	267
4. The Refusal to Deal under European Law	269
5. The Nature of the Conflict and the Type of Balance	272
6. The Proposal of a Categorical Balancing and the Resulting Equilibrium of Interests	276
Bibliography	278

Part V

Comparative Law Perspectives	283
-------------------------------------	------------

Chapter 17

Exercise of Patent Rights under Japanese Anti-monopoly Prevention Law: A Comparative Law Perspective	285
Toshiko Takenaka

1. Introduction	285
2. Canon Recycle Cartridge Case	286
3. Illinois Tool Works v. Independent Ink	289
4. Conclusion	291
References	291

Chapter 18

A Primer on Competition and IP Law: A US-EU Perspective on Private Enforcement	293
Rebecca Spitzmiller

References	310
------------	-----

Part VI
National Law Insights	313
Chapter 19
The Relationship between IP Rights and Competition: Report from an Italian Point of View	315
Marina Anna Tavassi
1. Refusal to Deal and Obligation of Signing a Contract	317
2. Italian Courts on the Merits: Some Cases	319
3. Design and Models: The Case of Spare Parts	323
4. The Italian Cases on 'Standardization'	326
5. The Italian Supreme Court Case Law	328
6. A Final Proposal	333
References	335
Chapter 20
Antitrust and Intellectual Property: Reflections on the Experiences of AGCM	341
Carla Rabitti Bedogni
1. Introduction	341
2. EU/US Approach and the Contributions of Comparative Systems Analysis	342
3. The AGCM Contribution	344
4. Conclusions	346
References	347
Chapter 21
The Jurisdiction of Italian Judges in Enforcing Antitrust Law: Problems and Solutions	349
Enrico Adriano Raffaelli
1. The Special Nature of Antitrust Law	350
2. The Italian Jurisdiction Structure with Regard to the Enforcement of Antitrust Law	356
2.1. Jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal in Accordance with Article 33 of Law 287/1990	356
2.2. The Jurisdiction of the Civil Courts over Breaches of European Antitrust Law	359
2.3. The Jurisdiction of the IP Specialized Divisions Pursuant to Article 134 of the Italian Industrial Property Code	360
2.4. The Jurisdiction of Courts over 'Collective Actions'	362

Table of Contents

3. Reflections on Some of the Main Problems Resulting from the Peculiar Jurisdiction Structure for the Enforcement of Antitrust Law in the Italian Legal System	363
3.1. The Determination of the Judge Having Jurisdiction over an Antitrust Claim	363
3.2. The Extent of the Court of Appeal's Jurisdiction with Respect to the Private Enforcement of Antitrust Law	366
3.3. The Interpretation of Article 134 of the Italian Industrial Property Code	371
3.4. The Cooperation Instruments Provided by Article 15 of Regulation 1/2003	374
4. Conclusive Reflections	377
References	378
 Chapter 22
Developments in Competition Law in the English Courts	383
Vivien Rose
1. 'Consent' to Placing of Goods on the Market	383
2. Repackaging of Pharmaceutical Products	385
 Chapter 23
Report on Competition Law Enforcement in the United Kingdom	387
The Hon Sir Gerald Barling
 Chapter 24
The Swedish Asphalt Cartel Case	393
Christer H:son Fallenius
1. How Was the Cartel Discovered?	393
2. The Applications	394
3. The Appeal	395
4. The Ruling of the Market Court	395
 Index	397