

CONTENTS

Introduction

Gender, Power and Corporatism 3

Anna Elomäki, Johanna Kantola,
and Paula Koskinen Sandberg

Collective Bargaining and Gender Equality

The Gendered Nature of Pattern Bargaining: Leeway for Change? 29

Ines Wagner and Mari Teigen

Conflicts Over Gender Equality Bargaining: The Introduction of a Gender Equality Fund in Sweden 49

Josefina Erikson

Negotiating in a Highly Feminised Sector: The French Domestic Work and Home-Based Care Sector 71

Clémence Ledoux and Rachel Krupka

Social Partners and Equality Bargaining in France: A Blunt Tool for Reducing Gender Pay Gaps 97

Susan Milner and Sophie Pochic

Is Finnish Corporatism Reconfiguring, and Is It Good for Gender Equality?	121
Paula Koskinen Sandberg, Anna Elomäki, Armi Mustosmäki, and Johanna Kantola
Social Partners' Influence on Gender Policymaking and Framings of Equality
EU Neo-Corporatism and Gender Equality Policy: Disappearing Partnership?	149
Sophie Jacquot
European Social Partners: Advancing and Opposing European Union's Gender Equality Policies	171
Anna Elomäki and Johanna Kantola
Converging and Conflicting Perspectives on Gender Equality Amongst Spanish Social Partners	197
My Rafstedt
Gendered Patterns of Representation in Trade Unions
Trade Unions, Collective Bargaining and Gender in Germany	223
Ingrid Artus and Judith Holland
From Feminised to Feminist? Trade Union Campaigns for Early Years Educators, Nurses and Midwives in Ireland	245
Pauline Cullen
Selecting Social Partners: Collective Bargaining for Gender Equality in the Shadow of Political Polarisation and Ideology in Turkey	271
Burcu Taşkın and Berfin Çakın
Conclusions on Social Partners and Gender Equality in Europe	297
Anna Elomäki, Johanna Kantola, and Paula Koskinen Sandberg
Index	309