

Contents

Introduction /6

Changes in the Central European Landscape /9

The Kladruber Horse /16

The Historic Context /16

The Horse as Source of Human Nourishment /17

The Horse as Subject of Domestication and Factor of Civilisational Development /18

The Horse as Helper of Pastoralists /20

The Horse as Drawer of Ploughs, Sleighs and Carts /20

The Horse as Helper of Agriculture /24

The Horse as War Steed /26

The Horse as Partner for Sport and Leisure /29

The Horse as Theme for Artistic Depictions, Legends,
Myths and Rituals /31

The Horse as Helper for Communication /33

The Lineage of the Kladruber Horse /36

Breeding and Training the Kladruber Horse /42

The Landscape for Breeding and Training Ceremonial Carriage Horses in Kladruby nad Labem /52

The Historic Context /52

The Earliest History /53

The Stud-Farm in the 17th and 18th Centuries /55

Patterns for Space Formation from the Principles of the French Garden /60

The Culminating Era /66

Patterns for Space Formation from the Principles of Painterly-Landscaped Composition /80

The Mošnice Landscaped Park /84

The "Na Jitrech" Landscaped Park /88

Justification for Including the Landscape for Breeding and Training Ceremonial Carriage Horses in Kladruby nad Labem among World Heritage /90

Landscape-Forming Elements /94

Water in the Landscape /94

The Kladruby Millrace /94

The Strašov Brook /94

Drainage and Irrigation Canals /95

Oxbow Lakes of the Labe River /96

Tree Species, Their Size, Colours, Placement and Mutual Relations /96

Tree-Avenues and Tree-Rows /96

Tree-Clumps in the Pastures /98

Individual Tree Plantings /98

Topiary Hedges /100

Extractive Forests /100

Riparian Nature /102

Roadways in the Landscape /102

Paths in Open Country /102

Paths in Forest Cuttings /103

The Garden and Park in the Landscape /104

The Mošnice Park /104

The Manor Garden /105

Architectural Heritage /105

The Stable Court in Kladruby nad Labem /106

The Stable Court Františkov /106

The Stable Court Josefov /107

Other Significant Buildings in the Landscape /108

Artistic Works in the Landscape /112

Village Settlements /115

Biographical Portraits of Significant Personalities Involved with the Landscape and the Stud-Farm /116

Summary in Czech /122

Bibliography /124

Indexes /126