

Table of Contents

Preface	v
List of Contributors	ix
 The People and the Courts: An Introduction	 1
DJ Galligan
1. The Case for Judicial Independence in the Age of Populism	17
Robert J Sharpe
2. Judicial Independence and Perceptions of Legitimacy	35
Nick Friedman
3. The Judicialisation of Politics and Threats to Judicial Independence: When Should We ‘Cry Wolf’?	59
Ezequiel Gonzalez-Ocantos
4. Judicial Independence and Transformative Constitutionalism: Squaring the Circle of Legitimacy	73
Daniel Butt
5. Self-fulfilling Prophecies: ‘Populism’ and ‘Judicial Independence’ in Europe	93
Bogdan Iancu
6. Judicial Independence – The View from Israel	115
Amir Paz-Fuchs
7. The Nature of Judicial Review in America	133
John W Adams
8. Under Pressure: Building Judicial Resistance to Political Interferences	153
Katarína Šipulová
9. Transparency in the ‘Fairyländ Duchy of Luxembourg’	171
Catherine Barnard
10. From Mystery to Transparency: How Judges Promote Public Understanding of the Judicial Role	189
Paul Magrath

11. Legal Elites, Lord Chancellors and Judicial Independence 205
 Graham Gee

12. Ally or Enemy, Friend or Foe..... 223
 DJ Galligan

Bibliography 241

Index 249