

Table of Contents

|                                                                             |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| Introduction .....                                                          | 9  |
| 1. One of Kim In-woo's Ships Drifts Ashore in Hamada.....                   | 12 |
| 2. Pioneers to Ulleungdo (Takeshima):Matazai and Ōya Jinkichi.....      | 16 |
| 3. Ulleungdo and Takeshima.....                                             | 21 |
| 4. The Ōya and Murakawa Families.....                                       | 26 |
| 5. Oki and Takeshima.....                                                   | 32 |
| 6. The Genroku Takeshima Incident andthe Governor of Iwami Ginzan ..... | 39 |
| 7. The Korean Goodwill Missions andthe Takeshima Issue .....            | 45 |
| 8. The Japanese Sea Lion and Takeshima .....                                | 51 |
| 9. After the Travel Prohibition .....                                       | 56 |
| 10. Matsushima Becomes Liancourt (Lianco) Island .....                      | 63 |
| 11. The Tenpō Takeshima Incident and Hachiemon.....                         | 69 |

|                                                                                                       |     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 12. Matsuura Takeshirō .....                                                                          | 74  |
| 13. The Japanese Who Crossed over to Ulleungdo inthe Early Meiji Period .....                     | 77  |
| 14. The Grand Council of State's Directive in 1877 .....                                              | 81  |
| 15. About The Chronology of Korea by Mori Junzaburō .....                                      | 89  |
| 16. The Russo-Japanese War and Takeshima .....                                                        | 93  |
| 17. The Korean Teacher An Yeongjung inMatsue City in 1905 .....                                   | 98  |
| 18. Nakai Yōzaburō .....                                                                              | 103 |
| 19. Uldo Magistrate Shim Heung-taek andthe Shimane Prefecture Inspection Team .....               | 108 |
| 20. The Takeshima Fishing and Hunting LimitedPartnership Company .....                            | 113 |
| 21. Stories from Friends of Ulleungdo News (I):Ulleungdo in 1904 and 1905 .....            | 119 |
| 22. Stories from Friends of Ulleungdo News (II):Life in the Taishō and Shōwa Periods ..... | 123 |
| 23. Stories from Friends of Ulleungdo News (III):Interactions with Koreans .....           | 128 |
| 24. Ulleungdo Is a Treasure Island:A Letter from Father to Son .....                              | 132 |
| 25. The Pacific War .....                                                                             | 136 |
| 26. The Treaty of San Francisco .....                                                                 | 141 |
| 27. The Syngman Rhee Line .....                                                                       | 146 |

|                                                                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 28. The Asanagimaru and the Ōtorimaru .....                         | 150 |
| 29. Solitary Takeshima: From the Syngman Rhee Lineto a Provisional Zone ..... | 157 |
| 30. Takeshima as Japanese Territory .....                                         | 160 |
| Afterword.....                                                                    | 163 |
| Supplementary Figures.....                                                        | 165 |
| Chronology.....                                                                   | 172 |
| References .....                                                                  | 183 |