

Contents

Acknowledgements	vi
introduction	vii
How to use this book	viii
Part 1: Starting points	1
1 Teach philosophically	2
2 A guided tour of philosophy land	3
3 It's good to talk	4
4 Flipped philosophy	5
5 The power of podcasts	6
6 Easy reading	7
7 Going off-piste	8
8 Ask a funny question	9
9 Modelling thinking	10
10 The philosophical classroom	11
11 The value of philosophy	12
12 Dual-purpose lessons	13
Part 2: Stimulating inquiry	15
13 Eleusis	16
14 Experimental philosophy	17
15 Uncovering mystery	18
16 The method of doubt	19
17 Paradox play	20
18 Making philosophy real	22
19 Dream time	23
20 Philosophy in the movies	24
21 A web of illusion	25
22 Philosophical pictures	26
23 Experimenting with thought	27
24 Possible worlds	28
25 Real-world thought experiments	29
26 The power of stories	30
27 From story to argument	31
28 Genealogical explanation	32
29 Everyday ethics	33
30 From ordinary life to metaphysics	34
31 Where do we fit in?	36

32	Identity parade	37
33	Making use of MOOCs	38
Part 3: Talking philosophy		39
34	Where will you sit?	40
35	Socratic gadfly	41
36	Socratic investigation	42
37	Managing the extremes	43
38	Brain games	44
39	From discussion to debate	45
40	Preparing to debate	46
41	Running a formal debate	48
42	Running tutorials	50
43	Student-led seminars	51
44	Oral presentation skills	52
45	Keep the conversation going	53
Part 4: Reading and researching		55
46	Philosophical scaffolding	56
47	Argument identification	57
48	The five Ws	58
49	Easy citations and bibliographies	59
50	The golden key	60
51	The two-stage research rocket	61
52	Vox pop	62
53	Question time	63
Part 5: Philosophical argument		65
54	What does it mean?	66
55	Concept mapping	67
56	Compare and contrast	68
57	Sharpening up definitions	69
58	Word triples	70
59	Can you move the universe?	71
60	The language of argument	72
61	Looking for the black swan	73
62	The hitchhiker's guide to the fallacy	74
63	Argument mapping	75
64	Argument construction	76
65	Philosophical Lego	78
66	Frame it	80
67	Making frameworks work	81
68	The method of disputation	82
69	Argument formalisation	83
70	But what do I really think?	84

Part 6: Writing philosophy	85
71 Writing that flows well	86
72 ACE essays	87
73 The principle of charity	88
74 SEAL those paragraphs	90
75 The opinion spectrum	91
76 Developing a line of argument	92
77 Teaching academic register	93
78 Signpost sentences	94
79 Beginning well	95
80 Ending well	96
81 Think about the reader	97
Part 7: Philosophy projects	99
82 The power of projects	100
83 Get the question right	101
84 Write as you go	102
85 Supervisory logs	103
86 Journals for meta-cognition	104
87 Thematic or chronological?	106
88 Description to evaluation	107
89 Do it again!	108
90 Work in progress	109
91 Well-presented projects	110
Part 8: Beyond the philosophy classroom	111
92 Running a philosophy club	112
93 Visiting speakers	113
94 Powerful presentations	114
95 A philosophy VLE	115
96 Running online discussions	116
97 Philosophy café	117
98 Philosophical drop-in	118
99 Run a teachers' philosophy group	119
100 Philosophical inspirations	120