

CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS xi

FOREWORD TO THIS EDITION, by Michelle Ciulla Lipkin xiii

FOREWORD TO THE FIRST EDITION, by Barry Duncan xv

PREFACE, by Denise E. Agosto xvii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xix

INTRODUCTION xxi

PART I Exploring Media Literacy

1 Media Literacy: The Key to Critical Thinking 3

Reflection: Media Education and Critical Thinking:

A Multimodal Approach to Flying Saucers and #Fakenews 12

by Pam Goble, Ryan Goble, Ben Peterselli, and George Wedel

2 Media and Information Literacy Crossover (UNESCO) 17

Reflection: Conceptual Convergence of Media and Information Literacy (MIL) 22

by Marcus Leaning

3 Perspective, Perception, and Point of View 27

Reflection: Leading and Learning through Perspective, Perception, and Point of View 35

by Joanna Marshall

4 "Fake News" and "Alternative Facts" 37

Reflection: Navigating Information in the Era of Fake News and Alternative Facts 43

by Kathleen Currie Smith

5 Digital Citizenship, Privacy, and Digital Leadership 47

Reflection: Digital Citizenship in the Classroom:

A Student and Practitioner Perspective 53

by Marialice B.F.X. Curran and Curran Dee

6 Digital Literacy 57

Reflection: Digital Literacy in the Elementary Classroom 63

by Emily Soler

7 Technology as a Tool for Social Inclusion and Transmission 67Reflection: From Computing to Community 72*by Ryan Goble, James Hultgren, Michael Roethler, and Nessa Slowinski8 Equity vs. Equality 77*Reflection: Equity and Equality in the Media: Giving Voice to the Voiceless 81*by Jimmeka Anderson9 Global Connections 85*Reflection: Global Issues in a Global Village 88*by Neil Andersen10 Social Justice and Advocacy 93*Reflection: Social Justice: Teaching the Ability to Treat Others with Respect, Compassion, and Dignity 97*by Michael Godbout*

PART II The Major Formats of Media
Ready-to-Teach Lessons

11 Providing Media Literacy Education in the School Library and Classroom 103*12 Television 109

News, Sitcoms, and Dramas

13 Movies 119

Entertainment and Authentic Learning

14 Photography and Images 133

Capturing Moments in Time

15 Music and Radio 145

Table-Turning in the Classroom

16 Advertising 157

Sell and Tell

17 Media Production and Other Digital Technologies 173

PART III Resources for Teaching Media Literacy

Appendix A Glossary 189

Appendix B Timeline of Media Literacy Education 197

Appendix C Movies on the Media 205

Appendix D Media Literacy Resources 207

ABOUT THE AUTHOR AND CONTRIBUTORS 215

INDEX 219