

Contents

Table of Cases	xi
Table of Legislation	xvii
Table of Commission Decisions	xxiii
1. Introduction
I. What is a Cartel?	1.10
II. Are Cartels a Bad Thing?	1.14
III. Are Cartels Prevalent in Modern Economies?	1.21
IV. The Contribution of this Book	1.26
2. A Primer on Cartels
I. Why do Competitors Cartelize?	2.01
A. Private Benefits of Cartels	2.02
B. Social Costs of Cartels	2.42
II. How Do Cartels Work (and When are They Stable)?	2.62
A. Setting up a Cartel	2.65
B. When are Cartels Stable?	2.82
3. The Regulatory and Institutional Framework of EU Cartel Law
I. The Regulatory Framework Applying to the Enforcement of Competition Rules against Cartels	3.01
A. Article 101(1) TFEU—The Prohibition Rule	3.02
B. Article 101(2) TFEU—The Rule of Nullity	3.35
C. Article 101(3) TFEU—The Exception Rule	3.39
D. Congruence with Economic Analysis	3.44
II. The Institutional Framework Applying to the Enforcement of Competition Rules against Cartels	3.55
A. From Regulation 17/62 to Regulation 1/2003	3.56
B. The Interplay between the Commission, the NCAs, and the National Courts under Regulation 1/2003	3.58
4. Cartel Detection
I. Market Monitoring	4.04
A. Reactive Methods	4.08
B. Proactive Methods	4.13
C. Concluding Remarks	4.62
II. Inspections	4.65
A. The Powers of the Commission	4.67
B. Obligations and Rights of the Undertakings	4.75
C. Cooperation with National Authorities	4.79
III. Leniency	4.81
A. The European Commission's Leniency Policy	4.89
B. Leniency Procedure in the European Union	4.98

C. The Main Benefits and Possible Drawbacks of Leniency Policies	4.106
D. Could the Commission's Leniency Policy be Improved?	4.127
5. Cartel Prosecution
I. The Commission Investigation	5.02
A. Request for Information	5.03
B. Opening of the Proceedings	5.09
C. The Statement of Objections	5.12
D. Written Reply and Oral Hearing	5.15
E. Access to File and Confidentiality	5.21
II. Decision versus Settlement	5.26
A. Infringement Decisions	5.26
B. Cartel Settlements	5.36
III. Sanctions	5.82
A. Sanctioning Regime	5.83
B. Parental Liability	5.178
IV. Appeals	5.186
A. Judicial Review of Infringement Decisions	5.186
B. Judicial Review of Settlement Decisions	5.205
6. Civil Damages
I. National Initiatives in the Absence of an EU Damages Framework	6.01
A. The Problem of Private Enforcement	6.02
B. The US as the 'Gold' Standard?	6.09
C. National Initiatives in the Absence of an EU Damages Framework	6.13
D. Summing up State of Private Enforcement before the EU Damages Directive	6.47
II. The EU Damages Directive	6.61
A. Background to the Directive	6.61
B. The EU Damages Directive	6.68
C. Concluding Remarks	6.109
III. Damages and the Pass-on Defence	6.114
A. Why Calculate Damages?	6.116
B. An Economic Framework to Discuss Harm from Price Distortions	6.123
C. Methods to Compute Direct Damages	6.145
D. Pass-on Defence and Output Effect	6.166
E. Conclusions	6.195
7. The Value of Anti-Cartel Rules	287
Index	291