

Contents

1. Foreword 5
Scot M. Guenter and Petr Kopecký
2. Teaching American Women Writers from Inside and Out 9
  - 2.1. Finding about Livin': Teaching Women Writers in Modern American Literature 10
Karla Šimčíková
  - 2.2. Acknowledgement and Wreaths: Teaching Women Writers in Early American Literature 23
Karen English
3. American Reality Television 39
  - 3.1. How Real Can the Czechs Get? 40
Andrea Holešová
  - 3.2. American Reality TV: A Genre's Evolution from Schadenfreude to Parody 55
Scot M. Guenter
4. Myth and the American (South-)West 69
  - 4.1. The Wild West through Czech Eyes: Cowboys and Indians in the Heart of Europe 70
Petr Kopecký
  - 4.2. "Culture Vultures: White New Womanhood's Preserving and Reinterpreting California's 'Primitive' Heritage of Native Americans, Mexicans and The Wilderness, 1880s to 1930s" 81
Margo McBane
5. US Ethnic Literature in the Context of Two Major Time Periods and Notions of War 99
  - 5.1. The Second World War and the Shaping of a Literary Consciousness in the Works of Bellow, Momaday, and Okada 100
Stanislav Kolář

|      |   |     |
|------|---|-----|
| 5.2. | Bridges to the Past: Diaspora and the Cold War in Cristina Garcia's Dreaming in Cuban and Lan Cao's Monkey Bridge | 117 |
|      | Persis M. Karim   |     |

|    |              |     |
|----|--------------|-----|
| 6. | Contributors | 135 |
|----|--------------|-----|