

Contents

9	Introduction
13	The Hallstatt Period
13	Construction and metrology in the Hallstatt period in Silesia
47	The koine of geometric ornaments
58	Apollo's journey to the land of the Hyperboreans
62	The culture of the Hallstatt period or the great loom and scales
67	The La Tène Period
67	Paradigms of the La Tène style
95	Antigone and the Tyrannicides – the essence of ideological change
100	The widespread nature of La Tène style
100	The Baltic Sea
104	The Black Sea
107	The Roman Period
107	Birth of Early Roman style in the Barbaricum
112	Metrology and style paradigms during the Roman period
139	Variations on a theme, or metrology and paradigms of style in the Wielbark culture
157	The Wielbark culture and the Przeworsk culture – in search of the structural causes of dissimilarity
166	Ritual space and structure
180	Revival of the Hallstatt culture during the Roman period
183	The Migration Period
183	Ideological changes in late antiquity
195	The Huns, animal style, shamanism and graves
207	Changes in the perception of space
221	Instead of the ending
221	The nature of changes: the origins of the Saka-Scythian animal style
246	The Scythian-Celtic relations
251	Conclusions
253	Bibliography