

CONTENTS

General Editors' Preface	vii
Preface	ix
List of Cases	xv
List of Abbreviations	xxxvii
List of Contributors	xli
National Reports and Reporters	xlvi

PART I. THE ISSUE OF MORALITY IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF EUROPEAN CONTRACT LAW

Immoral Contracts in Europe: The First Common Core

Aurelia COLOMBI CIACCHI	3
1. Introduction	3
2. Immoral Agreements and Conditions under Roman Law	4
3. Legal Families and Legal Formants on Immoral Contracts	7
4. Legal Formants Concerning Immoral Contracts in Europe: Five Models.	9
4.1. The Civil Code Model	9
4.2. The Scottish Model	10
4.3. The English Model	11
4.4. The Cypriot Model	12
4.5. The Scandinavian Model	12
5. Conclusion	13

Immorality of Contracts in Europe: Four Approaches

Chantal MAK	15
1. Law, Morality and European Integration	15
2. Preliminary Question: Law and Morality	17
3. CJEU: A Deferential Approach	20
4. PECL and DCFR: A Principled Approach	22
5. CESL: A Missed Opportunity.	25
6. Looking for a Common Core: A Case-Based Comparative Approach	26
7. Contractual Morality in Time and Space	27

PART II. CASE STUDIES

Questionnaire 31

Case 1: Sex Work Contracts 37

Case 2: Contracts Promoting Sex Work 127

Case 3: Contracts Promoting Telephone Sex 177

Case 4: Contracts Promoting “Dwarf Throwing” 213

Case 5: Surrogate Motherhood Contracts 267

Case 6: Marriage Brokerage Contracts 341

Case 7: Nuptial Agreements 391

Case 8: Contracts Restraining Marriage 455

Case 9: Conditional Contracts of Succession 505

Case 10: Contracts Restricting Personal Liberty 553

Case 11: Usurious Contracts 589

Case 12: Immoral Suretyships 647

PART III. COMPARATIVE CONCLUSIONS

28 Jurisdictions and 12 Types of Morally Dubious Contracts:
To What Extent is there a Common Core?

Aurelia COLOMBI CIACCHI 717

1. Introduction: Two Layers of Convergence 717

2. Very Strong Convergence at Both Layers: Protecting Mr Broke
(Case 10) 719

3. Strong Convergence at the First Layer, Very Strong Convergence at the Second: Succession Contracts Restricting Freedom of Marriage (Case 9) 720

4. Strong Convergence at Both Layers: Lawfulness of Telephone
Sex-Related Contracts (Case 3) 721

5. Strong Convergence at Both Layers: Loans with Exceptionally High Interest Rates (Case 11) 722

6. Strong Convergence at the First Layer, More Limited Convergence at the Second: Sex Work Contracts (Case 1) 722

7. Considerable Convergence at Both Layers: Lease of a Car to a
Sex Worker (Case 2) 723

8. Very Strong Convergence at the First Layer, Weak Convergence at the Second: Surrogate Motherhood Agreements (Case 5) 724

9. Very Strong Convergence at Both Layers in the Main Scenario,
Divergence in the Variation: Suretyships of Family Members
(Case 12) 725

10. Strong Convergence at the First Layer, Weak Convergence at the Second: Donations Restricting Freedom of Marriage (Case 8) 726

11. Major Convergence in the Main Scenario, Divergence in the Variation:
Pre-Nuptial Agreements (Case 7) 728

12. Considerable Convergence in the Main Scenario, Divergence in the Variation: Marriage Brokerage Contracts (Case 6) 729

13. Divergence at the First Layer, Major Convergence at the Second:
Contracts on Dwarf Throwing (Case 4) 730

14. Conclusion: The Common and the “Uncommon” Core 731

Index..... 733