

CONTENTS

Public Administration and Social Policies in Central and Eastern Europe
Vak Jabes 7

Introductory Papers

Social Policy in the Czech Republic
Jaroslav Dostál 15

The Czech Social Policy Reform
Martin Potůček 23

About Principles of Social Justice
Iveta Radicová 47

Section 1: Social Reform in the Context of Economic and Political Transformation

Social Reform in the Context of Economic and Political Transformation
Marju Lauristin 59

Bulgarian Welfare State Reform: Interests and Policy Choice
Tatyana Braykova 62

Strategic Formulation of Social Policy: The Eger Case
György Jenei, Zsuzsa Palotai and Anna Vari 70

The Main Social Problems in Latvia and How They can be Solved
Imants Krupenkous 87

Financial Problems of Social Policy Programs in the Kyrghyz Republic
Bolotbek Orovov 102

Section 2: Systems of Social Security: Unemployment, Youth and the Elderly

Systems of Social Security: Unemployment, Youth and the Elderly
Martin Macha and Tomas Sirovatka 111

Enterprises Restructuring and Emergency of New Labour Markets in East-Germany, Poland and Bulgaria François Bafoil	114
Poverty and Unemployment in Kyrgyzstan during the Transition to a Market Economy Asel Bektenova	119
Reform of the Hungarian Pension System János Hoós	126
Some Obvious and Some less Apparent Effects of the Social Security System: The Czech Republic Tomás Sirovátka	132
The Tax and Social Security Systems of the Czech Republic Leos Vitek	155
Social Welfare for the Entire Population by Universal or Employment-Related Systems Karl Woerister	166

Section 3: Health Care Reform and Health Care Management

Health Care Reform and Health Care Management Juraj Nemec	179
Health Care Reform: The Case of the Slovak Republic Colin Lawson and Juraj Nemec	183
Current Problems and a Possible Future of Czech Health Care Reform Ivan Malý	194
The Response to AIDS in Eastern and Western Europe Monika Steffen	201
Reform of the Health Care System in Estonia: The Present Situation and Perspectives Elo Tuppits	221

Section 4: Using Public Opinion Surveys in Public Administration

Using Public Opinion Surveys in Public Administration

Michal Illner 235

Public Opinion Research as a Means of Communication with the Public

Věra Foretová and Miroslav Foret 240

The Perception of Current Social Problems: The Role of Local Government and Citizens' Participation during the Transition Period in Poland

Dorota Krzemionka-Brózda and Janina Kowalik 248

What is to be done about Corrupt Officials?

William L. Miller, Ase B. Grodeland and Tatyana Y. Koshechkina 266

Empirical Research on Poverty in Russian Society and Possible Application of its Results in Public Administration

Ludmila Voltchkova, L.B. Kuznetsova and V.N. Minina 291

Section 5: Public Administration Reform

Public Administration Reform

Tony Verheijen and Grazyna Kacprowicz 305

Social Aspects of the Administrative Reform in Bulgaria

Ludmil Georgiev 312

The Political Regime and the Civil Service in Present Day Russia

Alexander Kotchegura 318

Public Administration Reforms in the Republic of Armenia

Edik Ordian and David Tumanian 324

The Role of Public Administration in Small Communities

Radim Perlín 333

Politics and Public Administration

Renata Puscasu 342

Depolitization of the Public Administration: Towards the Civil Service

Zeljko Sevic and Aleksandra Rabrenovic 351

The Impact of Public Administration Reform on the Training of Civil Servants in the Czech Republic Olga Vidláková	371
---	-----

Section 6: Executive Development in Local Government

The Challenge of Central and Eastern European Local Executives' Development: A Working Group Initiative Alexander Kouriga	383
Professional Capacity Building for Local Governments in Transitional Countries: Training Design and Delivery Artashes Gazaryan and Jurgita Kersyte	391
Re-Engineering the Stovepipe Yurii Polianskiy, Wendy Shelley and Aidan Rose	403