

CONTENTS

Foreword by doc. Ing. Štěpán Müller, CSc.	5
Foreword by doc. Ing. Lubomír Lízal, PhD.....	7
Foreword by doc. Dr. Jiří Kašný, ThD	9
Preface.....	15
Introduction: ‘The Table Set for a Banquet’: Reflection on Higher Education in the Czech Republic.....	19
1. The Founder and his Vision
Jan Raichl Prior to Founding Anglo-American College.....	27
Anglo-American College: Its Visions, Plans and Preparations: 1990 – 1991	29
How to Legalize a Private College in Prague in Early 1990s.....	44
2. AAC under the Roof of a Prague High School (September 1991 – September 1993)
Anglo-American College Opens: Academic Year 1991/1992	51
Second Academic Year: 1992/1993	60
3. Raichl’s Transcarpathian Dream and the Reality (1990 – 1993)
AAC Campus in Uzhgorod	65
Book Charity	73
4. Crisis and Schism (Fall Semester 1993)
College Moves to an Abandoned Computer Club	79
American International University in Prague.....	84
5. AAC Saved by Jetelka and Restructured (December 1993 – 1995/1996)
From Trade License to Foundation: December 1993 – January 1994	89
Finding Jetelka and Restructuring the College: A Clover Leaf for Good Luck.....	93
The Schackwitz Era: 1994/1995 and 1995/1996 Academic Years.....	101
A Reinterpretation of the Schackwitz Era: Audiatur et Altera Pars	137

6. Richard Jones: A Prototypical British Diplomat Chairing the College (1996/1997 – 1997/1998)
Consolidation of Anglo-American College: Academic Year 1996/1997	143
AAC Must Remain Liberal in Our Attitudes and Methods	151
End of Diplomatic Mission and the Calm Before the Storm: Academic Year 1997/1998	155
7. Roger Cole: First AAC Interim President (August 1998 – April 1999)
Grand Plans and Grand Demands	163
Registration of AAC, o. p. s.: Inconspicuous Beginnings of Big Changes	173
The Abrupt End of Roger Cole’s Presidency	192
8. Rosemary Taugher: Summertime Acting President (May – July 1999)
Taugher as Human Resources Auditor and CFO: March – May 1999	193
Taugher as Interim President: May – July 1999	196
9. Richard Smith: Interim President (November 1999 – February 2001)
Inspired Leadership with Integrity and Vision	211
Priority Agendas in 2000	219
Last Semesters as a Requalification Institution: 1999/2000 and 2000/2001	240
10. Accreditation as a College: Momentum in a Good Direction (2000 – 2001)
Accreditation Submitted and Withdrawn	245
Mitchell Young: Interim President (March – September 2001)	251
Conclusion	261
Memories and Recollections	265
Documentary Appendix	329
List of Documents	330
List of Photographs	438
Afterword: Message of the Board of Founders and Board of Trustees	451
Sources	455
Name Index	462