

Contents

|                                                                                |                                                                                                                                             |            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 1                                                                       | Introduction: Qualitative Research in Mental Health—Innovation and Collaboration .....                                               | 1   |
|                                                                                | Maria Borcsa, Carla Willig, and Sebastian Schröer-Werner                                                                                    |            |
| Part I Illustrating Innovation in Qualitative Mental Health Research    |                                                                                                                                             |            |
| 2                                                                       | Psychiatrists’ Perceptions of Schizophrenia and Its Recovery: A Thematic Analysis .....                                              | 15  |
|                                                                                | Janice Sargent and Angela Abela                                                                                                             |            |
| 3                                                                       | Approaching Psychotherapy Case Studies in a Metasynthesis: Deficit vs. Conflict in Treatment of Medically Unexplained Symptoms ..... | 37  |
|                                                                                | Juri Krivzov, Dewi Hannon, and Reitske Meganck                                                                                              |            |
| 4                                                                       | Walking Interviews: A Novel Way of Ensuring the Voices of Vulnerable Populations Are Included in Research .....                      | 65  |
|                                                                                | Penelope Kinney                                                                                                                             |            |
| 5                                                                       | Using Researcher Reflexivity and Multiple Methods to Study the Experience of Cancer-Related Distress .....                           | 83  |
|                                                                                | Carla Willig                                                                                                                                |            |
| Part II Applying Qualitative Methods in Collaborative Research Projects |                                                                                                                                             |            |
| 6                                                                       | Listening for What Is Not Being Said: Using Discourse Analytic Approaches in Mental Health Research .....                            | 105 |
|                                                                                | Julianna Challenor, Eugenie Georgaca, Rebecca Aloneftis, Nobuhle Dlodlo, and Helena Curran                                                  |            |
| 7                                                                       | Re-claiming the Power of Definition—The Value of Reflexivity in Research on Mental Health at Risk .....                              | 135 |
|                                                                                | Mariya Lorke, Carolin Schwegler, and Saskia Jünger                                                                                          |            |

|           |                                                                                                                                             |            |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| 8  | Interpersonal Process Recall in Systemic Research:Investigating Couple Therapists' Personal and ProfessionalSelves .....   | 167 |
|           | Maria Borcsa and Bernadetta Janusz                                                                                                          |            |
| 9  | Bringing Mental Health Back into the Dynamics of SocialCoexistence: Emotional Textual Analysis .....                            | 193 |
|           | Fiorella Bucci, Rosa Maria Paniccia, Felice Bisogni,Stefano Pirrotta, Francesca Romana Dolcetti, Giulia Marchetti,and Katia Romelli |            |
| 10 | Engraved in the Body: Ways of Reading Finnish People'sMemories of Mental Hospitals .....                                        | 219 |
|           | Saara Jäntti, Kirsi Heimonen, Sari Kuuva, Karoliina Maanmieli,and Anu Rissanen                                                          |            |
| 11 | Conclusion: Qualitative Research in Mental Health:Reflections on Research Questions, Methods and Knowledge .....                | 251 |
|           | Carla Willig and Maria Borcsa                                                                                                               |            |
|           | Index .....                                                                                                                          | 263 |