

CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION: WHY THIS LITTLE BOOK?	9
II. HUMANITY IS NOT QUITE ALRIGHT, BUT ISN'T COMPLETELY LOST: THE ESSENCE OF THE CONSULTATION	11
III. COMENIUS'S TIME AND TIMELESSNESS: HOW TO READ A 350-YEAR-OLD DREAM?	21
IV. "HUMAN AFFAIRS:" SEVEN MEDITATIONS	27
"Let Us Consider the State of Public Affairs:" politics and government	27
"In the Beginning Was the Word:" speech, language, media	33
"The Work That Thrives:" entrepreneurship, work, business	37
"True satisfaction of mind:" faith, spirituality, religion	42
"School: the workshop of humanity, not torture of the spirit:" education, philosophy	53

“If one cannot see beauty in the world:” culture, beauty, art	58
“Love that does not seek its own benefit:” family, relationships	64
V. “AND YET HE HAS A PLACE IN OUR WORLD:” A MILDLY CRITICAL CONCLUSION	71
VI. SUPPLEMENTS	79
The Lost and Found Consultation	79
Biographical mini-timeline of Comenius	84
BIBLIOGRAPHY	91
INDEX OF NAMES	95