

Contents

Preface	xi
Table of Cases	xiii
Introduction	1
PART ONE
MEMBER STATES' DEFINITION OF LEGISLATIVE ACTS	7
Chapter 1
Definition of Legislative Act in the United Kingdom	11
I. The Traditional Concept of Legislative Act	11
II. Challenge to the Traditional Concept: Government as Lawmaker	13
A. Formal Criteria: Statutory Instruments	14
1. Formal Criterion: Specification by the Enabling Act	16
2. Statutory Authority	18
B. Substantive Definition: Acts of General Applicability	19
1. General Nature of Acts	19
2. Requirement of a Statutory Basis as Necessary
Element of Legislative Acts?	21
a. Legislative Acts Adopted under the Royal Prerogative	21
b. Administrative Rules	22
C. Binding Nature of Legislative Acts	22
III. Summary	24

Chapter 2
Definition of Legislative Act in French Law	25
I. Allocation of Lawmaking Powers under the Third Republic (1871-1940) and Fourth Republic (1946-1958)	26
II. Definition of Legislative Act in the Fifth Republic	31
A. Acts Adopted by Parliament (loi)	31
1. Strict Interpretation of Legislative Competences	32
2. Extension of the Legislative Area	32
a. Preamble as Source of Legislative Competence	32
b. Modification of General Principles of Law as Source of Legislative Competence	34
c. Unlimited Area for Legislative Acts	34
d. Definition of loi and Legislative Area	35
3. Scope of the Legislative Area	36
B. Law-Making Powers of the Executive	37
1. Ordonnances	37
2. Regulatory Competence of Government	39
3. Regulatory Competence of the President	41
4. Regulatory Competence of Other Bodies	42
III. Summary	42
Chapter 3
Definition of Legislative Act in German Law	45
I. Historical Developments before the 1949 Constitution	45
A. Constitutionalism in the 19th century	45
B. Laband's Theoretical Concepts of Gesetz and Verordnung	46
C. Weimar Republic and Hitler's Absolute Rule	48
II. Definition of Legislative Act under the Basic Law of 1949	49
A. Acts Adopted by Parliament	50
1. Definition of Gesetz	50
2. Scope of Legislative Acts	51
a. Reconsideration of the General Legislative Reservation and the Theory of Essentialness	53
b. Constitutional Basis for the Theory of Essentialness	54
3. Judicial Review of Gesetz	56
B. Lawmaking Powers of the Executive	56
1. Delegated Legislation	57
2. The Problem of Autonomous Lawmaking by Government	58
C. Lawmaking by Autonomous Bodies	59
III. Summary	61

Chapter 4
Conclusion	63

PART TWO LEGISLATIVE ACTS IN THE EC LEGAL SYSTEM 67

Chapter 1
The Law-Making Structure in the EC Legal System	71

Chapter 2
Community Acts as Legislation in Substance	77

I.	Regulations as Acts of General Application	78
II.	Addressees of an Act	82
	A. Determining the Immediate Legal Consequences of Community Acts	86
	1. Direct Effect	87
	a. The Original Concept: Direct Effect of Treaty Provisions	87
	b. Direct Effect of Community Acts	89
	c. Ambiguities in the Doctrine of Direct Effect	93
	d. Direct Effect: Rationale and Concept	96
	2. Conform Interpretation	97
	3. Rights and Remedies	100
	4. The Concept of Reviewable Acts under Article 230	103
	5. Direct Concern	106
	a. Regulations	106
	b. Decisions	107
	c. Directives	111
	d. Rationale of Direct Concern	112
	B. Determining the Addressees of Community Acts	113
	1. Modification of a Legal Position	115
	2. Direct Legal Effects	117
	C. Summary	120
III.	Criteria for the Determination of the Nature of the Act	121
	A. Open Class and Objectively Determined Situations	123
	B. Special Addressees within an Open Class	130
	1. Specific Procedural Position under EC Law	131
	a. Competition Cases	132
	b. Anti-Dumping Cases	134
	c. State Aid Cases	139
	d. Other Areas of Community Procedures	141
	e. Summary	142

2.	Specific Substantive Protection under EC Law	143
3.	Specific Effects on Rights	147
4.	Specific Economic Effects	148
5.	Closed Class within an Open Class	150
6.	Summary	152
C.	Closed Class and Objectively Determined Situation	153
1.	Objectively Determined Situations	153
2.	Decisions in Substance	156
D.	Conclusion	161
IV.	Relevance of the Concept of Legislation in Substance	165
A.	Form of Legal Acts	165
B.	Participation of Individuals in the Decision-Making Process	166
C.	Duty to Give Reasons	169
D.	Legal Certainty and Legitimate Expectation	171
E.	Judicial Review	173
1.	Non-Contractual Liability under Article 288(2)	174
2.	Indirect Challenges	177
3.	Intensity of Review in the Application of Certain General Principles of Law	179
F.	Conclusion	184
Chapter 3
EC Acts as Legislation in Form		187
I.	Nature of EC Competences	188
II.	The Role of the EC Institutions in the Law-Making Process	195
A.	The Commission	196
B.	The Council	200
C.	The European Parliament	209
D.	Alternative Model of the Function of the EC Institutions	217
III.	Legislative Procedures	218
A.	The Consultation Procedure	220
B.	The Co-Operation Procedure	222
C.	The Co-Decision Procedure	223
D.	The Assent Procedure	227
IV.	Relevance of the Concept of Legislation in Form	227
Conclusion		237
Bibliography		243
Index		251