

CONTENTS

Martin Slama and Tomáš Petruš	7
Imaginarities and Historiographies of Contested Regions: Transforming Centers and Peripheries in Asian and Middle Eastern Contexts—An Introduction
Nobuko Toyosawa	27
Japan and the Contested Center of Eighteenth-Century East Asia
Clément Steuer	59
“Like Sugar in Tea”: Competing Imaginaries and the Reinforcement of the Idea of a Nation-State in Egypt
Barbara Götsch	79
Imaginarities of the Future City in Kuala Lumpur, Singapore, and Vienna: Pathways to Recognition, Competitiveness, and Conviviality
Noura Kamal	111
Alternative Historiography: Al-Baraddūnī’s Perspective on Popular Literature and Folk Art in Yemen
Maria Six-Hohenbalken	137
Silencing the Periphery—Dealing with a Fateful Past in Transnational Spaces
Jarmila Ptáčková	175
Tibetan “Barbarians” in China’s Borderlands: Changing Perspectives According to the Geographical Records in the Siku quanshu

Claudia Aufschnaiter 213
Contested Landscapes: Mainland and Island Imaginaries of the Andaman Islands

Tomáš Petrů 241
Seizing the Center: Vigilantes and Gangsters in Indonesian Historiography and Contemporary Politics

Martin Slama 273
Imagining Indonesian Islam as a Center: New Mediations and Old Concepts of Power