Contents

Preface vii

1 Introduction: What is governance? 1
- 1.1 The process of governance 6
- 1.2 Public policy and governance 16
- 1.3 Summary and conclusion 17

2 Étatiste governance 19
- 2.1 Key features of étatiste governance 21
- 2.2 Assessing étatiste governance 27
- 2.3 Summary and conclusion 30

3 Network and interactive governance 32
- 3.1 Key features of interactive and network governance 34
- 3.2 Assessing interactive and network governance 42
- 3.3 Summary and conclusion 44

4 Multilevel governance 45
- 4.1 From intergovernmental relationships toward multilevel governance 45
- 4.2 Key features of multilevel governance 48
- 4.3 Summary and conclusion 59

5 Informal governance 60
- 5.1 Hybrid governance 62
- 5.2 Forms of informality 63
- 5.3 Questions about informal governance 70
- 5.4 Summary and conclusion 74

6	Metagovernance: The governance of governance	76
	6.1 What is metagovernance?	77
	6.2 How to metagovern: The tools of metagovernance	79
	6.3 The tools of nongovernmental metagovernance	84
	6.4 Why is metagovernance used?	87
	6.5 The who of metagovernance	90
	6.6 Qui custodiet ipsos custodes?	91
	6.7 Issues in metagovernance	92
	6.8 Summary and conclusion	94
7	Good governance?	96
	7.1 Alternative ideas about good governance	98
	7.2 Good governance as rule of law	99
	7.3 Good governance as participation and procedures	103
	7.4 Good governance: Delivering public services	106
	7.5 Putting the approaches to good governance together	110
	7.6 Summary and conclusion	114
8	Theoretical and methodological issues in governance research	116
	8.1 Can we have a unified theory of governance?	116
	8.2 Linking governance and public policy	119
	8.3 Governance in other disciplines	120
	8.4 Measuring governance	122
	8.5 Levels of measurement	124
	8.6 Summary and conclusion	133
References		135
Index		151